

Alaska Heritage Resources Survey

S SEC. 1, T 17S, R 12W, KRM

AHRS #: NOB-027

Aliquot:

Lat./Long.:

UTM:

64° 02' N / 160° 55' W

Acreage:

Map sheet: A 4

Site Name(s): Iquik Roadhouse (Iquik Roadhouse)

Site Description: This roadhouse, ~~was~~ located in the native village of Iquik or Iquik, <sup>was</sup> on the coast of Norton Sound. The roadhouse was a stop-over point on the Iditarod trail between Unalakleet and Shaktobik. <sup>It is</sup> ~~Not~~ known if <sup>there are</sup> anything remains of the roadhouse left at the site.

Significance: Associated with the Iditarod National Historic trail system.

Location: About 11.5 miles north north west of Unalakleet on the coast of Norton Sound, just south of the mouth of Egsvik Creek.

Citations: *Smith (ADP) 1974:44
USGS ~~map~~ (1909) Reconnaissance Map of the Middle Kuskokwim and Lower Yukon Rivers*

Danger of Destruction:

Present Condition:

Ecosystem:

Pertinent Dates:

Period:

Resource Nature:

Cultural Affiliation:

Preservation Status & Date:

Property Owner:

Repository:

Accession #:

BIA/BLM #:

Other # (specify):