

Alaska Heritage Resources Survey

SITE #: SOL-016

MAPSHEET: D6 .SEC.13,T6S,R30W,KRM *
64°57'50"N/164°39'10"W AREA:
UTM:

↳ IRON CREEK MINING CAMP AND STATION

Apparently a number of buildings of this mining camp and railroad station are still standing. A roadhouse (SOL-125) was shown here on the 1908 "Map of Seward Peninsula" by Arthur Gibson. The name derives from Iron Creek, which was the center of a major gold mining region in the early 1900s.

SITE SIGNIFICANCE:

LOCATION:

On the left bank of Iron Creek, approx. 1.3km SSW of its confluence with Pilgrim River, 25 miles northwest of Solomon.

CITATIONS:

Orth, D.J. 1971:460
Smith, M.E. (ADP) 1974:68
Buzzell, R.G. and Douglas Gibson 1986b:63-64

DANGER OF DESTRUCTION:

ASSOCIATED DATE: AD 1900s

PERIOD: Historic

RESOURCE NATURE: Site

CULTURAL AFFILIATION: Euroamerican

PRESERVATION STATUS:

OWNER:

USBLM

REPOSITORY:

ACCESSION #:

BIA/BLM#:

RELIABILITY: B1

OTHER#:

CODED BY: WJ

CONDITION: E
ENVIRONMENT: 0307

NHR DATE: / /

DATE OF ENTRY: 06/30/74; 01/23/87
DATE OF PRINTOUT: 01/12/90