| 6 | THE CLERK:Karl S. Johnstone presiding. |
| 7 | This court is now in session. |
| 8 | THE COURT: You may be seated. I thought |
| 9 | before we start jury selection I need to give counsel |
| 10 | some information on courtroom decorum, since you |
| 11 | haven't tried a case in Courtroom A or B, and |
| 12 | Mr. Chalos is new to the jurisdiction. I'll give you a |
| 13 | few administrative policies which generally are |
| 14 | followed by all of us. |
| 15 | In addressing anybody in court, when the jury |
| 16 | is present or the witnesses are present, I'd like |
| 17 | counsel to stand. If you need to approach a witness, |
| 18 | you may do so. Ask leave of the Court the first time |
| 19 | and then after that for that witness you may freely |
| 20 | approach the witness, if it's your witness. If it's an |
| 21 | opposing witness, ask leave of the Court and then you |
| 22 | can do so if you need to. |
| 23 | Please don't approach the jury without asking |
| 24 | leave of the Court. You can freely approach the bench |
| 25 | to get exhibits, you don't need to ask the Court to do |

| 1 | that. Once it becomes apparent that you're going to |
|----|---|
| 2 | need to do that, don't worry about it, just come on up. |
| 3 | In asking jurors questions, no leading |
| 4 | questions are permitted that suggest the answer. |
| 5 | Direct questions of jurors, if it has a little question |
| 6 | mark at the end of it, it starts out right. If it has |
| 7 | a period, it starts out wrong. Questions that suggest |
| 8 | what the evidence is going to be or that enlist a |
| 9 | speech or commitment from the jury are going to be |
| 10 | deemed improper from the beginning. |
| 11 | If you are going to ask for a commitment, the |
| 12 | only commitment that I'd be interested in hearing is |
| 13 | whether they can follow the Court's instructions and |
| 14 | render a verdict based on the evidence in accordance |
| 15 | with those instructions and can be fair and impartial. |
| 16 | Questions such as "Would you feel comfortable |
| 17 | if you were sitting here and a juror like yourself was |
| 18 | sitting in judgment?" are improper. |
| 19 | If you're going to exercise a challenge for |
| 20 | cause, some of them are very obvious, but some of them |
| 21 | are not. You can help me in ruling on a challenge for |
| 22 | cause if you be specific with the portion of the rule |
| 23 | that deals with the challenge. |
| 24 | When making objections to evidence, please |
| 25 | don't make an offer of proof unless you apply for it. |

No stipulations offered in front of the jury, and please state your objection in terms of the evidentiary rule you're relying upon. Some are more important than others. If it's a hearsay objection, I'd like to hear why it isn't hearsay or the exception.

You have a list of the witnesses now, which we put together, that did not include their titles. It's going to be confusing, in my opinion. We'll bring the jury in and I'll administer the oath and re-qualify them, read them the charges.

11 I think I've indicated this already, but 12 during the jury selection process there can be no 13 camera coverage of that. We're going to have --14 initially we're going to have approximately 100 jurors 15 in the courtroom. We'll seat them in the back of the 16 room and we'll seat them in the jury box. There will 17 be another 15 or so seats in the courtroom available 18 for interested spectators and media personnel, plus the 19 room in the back which will be open solely for media. 20 The jurors needs come first. We'll need all of them in 21 there initially for about a half an hour or so of . 22 orientation and then we will pick 30 names, and those 23 people will go to Courtroom A, and I'll pick 30 more 24 names and those people will come to court tomorrow, and 25 the remainder will come on Thursday. I'll give the

1 jurors some more instructions about their 2 responsibilities. 3 The jurors have already answered these 4 questions, so you don't need to ask the same questions 5 again. If the responses require an inquiry, then you 6 can go into that, to some extent if it's necessary, but 7 don't ask questions they've already answered; that's 8 unnecessary. If you need to inquire about one of the 9 responses, you can do that. 10 MR. COLE: Judge, on that point, some of 11 the... 12 THE COURT: If you can't read it, you'll have 13 I understand some of them were not very clear. to ask. 14 You may have to ask those questions over again. 15 I think that's all I needed to do. Is there 16 anything I can do for counsel before we clear the 17 courtroom? 18 Would counsel approach the bench, please? 19 (1400)20 (Whispered bench conference as follows:) 21 THE COURT: Mr. Chalos, I've given due regard 22 to your request, and given the number of people here 23 involved in this case and given that I've admitted a 24 non-resident counsel in to assist Mr. Madson, I don't 25 believe, unless it coincides with some other reasons, that your request will be granted for a continuance of the entire trial. I will allow you to leave, of course, but -- and I don't know what the stage of the trial will be in when you need to go, and I regret that, but this is something you probably have known about for some time and with two other counsel to assist, I think that's adequate. So, I don't want you to hope for that at this point. I don't think that's going to occur, a continuance of the entire trial to accommodate your needs to travel back to New York. MR. CHALOS: Well, Your Honor, on Thursday my wife is going for an examination. I'm hopeful she will be ready to induce. If not, then I suppose (indiscernible - away from mike), but I'll try and schedule (indiscernible - away from mike). THE COURT: Well, I just want to give you as much notice as I can on that. Don't you have Mr. Russo (indiscernible - away from mike), he's been admitted as well. Mr. Madson, I think with all the attorneys involved, I'm not going to be able to continue this trial because of one out of three being unable to attend. MR. THE COURT: Thank you. You may be seated. We're about to start jury selection in State of Alaska versus Joseph J. Hazelwood. The case numbers are 89-7217 and 7218. Before we do that, ladies and gentlemen, I'm going to have the clerk administer the first of what will prove to be two oaths to the prospective jurors. THE COURT: If not, say no. (Pause) Okay. You can be seated. Thank you.

Ladies and gentlemen, the charge in this case charged the defendant as follows:

That "On or about the 23rd or 24th day of March, 1989, at or near Valdez in the third judicial district, state of Alaska, Joseph J. Hazelwood, having no right to do so or any reasonable ground to believe he had such a right, recklessly created a risk of damage to the property of others in an amount exceeding $100,000.00 by widely dangerous means, i.e., the spilling of crude oil, by recklessly risking the

1 structural integrity of the oil tanker, Exxon Valdez, 2 through his actions taking him before, during and/or 3 after the Exxon Valdez struck Bligh Reef, knowing the 4 tanker was loaded with crude oil." 5 MR. COLE: Your Honor, can we approach the 6 bench? 7 (1662)8 (Whispered bench conference as follows:) 9 THE COURT: (indiscernible - away from mike) 10 you didn't bring it to my court and you've got to bring 11 it to me when you file it downstairs. It doesn't get 12 to me (indiscernible - away from mike). 13 I'm sorry, Your Honor. I apologize MR. COLE: 14 for that. (indiscernible - away from mike). 15 (1675)16 (End of whispered bench conference.) 17 There's been an amended charge, THE COURT: 18 which I'll read to you in place of the charge that was 19 just read. 20 It states that "On or about the 23rd or 24th 21 days of March, 1989, at or near Valdez in the third 22 judicial district, state of Alaska, 23 Joseph J. Hazelwood, having no right to do so or any 24 reasonable ground to believe he had such a right, 25 recklessly created a risk of damage to the property of

1 others in an amount exceeding $100,000.00 by widely 2 dangerous means to wit, by the totality of his actions. 3 On March 23 and 24, 1989, he recklessly risked damage, 4 damaging the structural integrity of the oil tanker. 5 Exxon Valdez, causing the spillage of crude oil." 6 Essentially the same charges, ladies and 7 gentlemen. 8 "To that charge, the defendants pleaded not 9 guilty, which places the burden of proving the 10 defendant quilty by proof beyond a reasonable doubt on 11 the state of Alaska." 12 I'll read to you more about that shortly. 13 "In addition, the defendant has been charged 14 with operating a water craft while intoxicated, 15 reckless endangerment and negligent discharge of oil. 16 He has pled not guilty to those charges, which also 17 places upon the state the burden of proving the 18 defendant quilty by proof beyond a reasonable doubt to 19 each and every element of those charges." 20 I've read the charges to you so you know what 21 kind of case this is. This is going to be a lengthy 22 trial, ladies and gentlemen. Council have estimated 23 this trial to take anywhere from six to eight weeks. 24 That's an estimate. It could take less, it could take 25 longer, but I think that's a reasonable guess as to how

1 long it's going to take.

2 That's going to require a substantial 3 commitment on any juror who is fortunate enough to be 4 selected on this trial. It will understandably involve 5 some inconvenience, personal inconvenience, financial 6 It will involve a commitment inconvenience to jurors. 7 which we're going to ask you to make at sometime during 8 this procedure. The purpose of the jury selection is 9 to obtain a fair and impartial jury that can decide 10 this case based solely on the evidence that's presented 11 in this courtroom and in accordance with the Court's 12 instructions.

13 The case has been given extensive media 14 coverage up to the present date and I expect it will be 15 given extensive media coverage throughout the duration 16 of the trial. Some of the questions of the prospective 17 jurors will involve the extent of your exposure to this 18 media coverage and the impact on you of this media 19 coverage. We have given you questionnaires which you 20 have filled out, and so we know quite a bit about you 21 That's to give counsel specific information alreadv. 22 concerning your abilities to be fair and impartial and 23 be able to decide this case solely on the evidence and 24 in accordance with the jury's instructions.

Our trial days for the first three weeks, which will take us through this week and the next two weeks, will be from nine o'clock until Noon, at which time all of us, including the jury, will be given a lunch break until approximately 1:15, at which time we will return and go until approximately 4:00 p.m. each day. At the conclusion of the first three weeks we may have to adjust those trial hours somewhat. We may end up going from 8:30 in the morning until 1:30 in the afternoon with no lunch break, but with periodic breaks, at which time the jury would be excused for the trial day. But that remains to be seen. I'll have to see what happens to my calendar during that time.

In every criminal proceeding, ladies and gentlemen, the defendant is given the presumption of innocence and the state is required to prove each of the essential elements of the charge against the defendant beyond a reasonable doubt. I'm going to read an instruction to you, which will be read again at the conclusion of the case, verbatim, and it's an instruction that is in the same fashion or similar fashion given in every court in these United States in a criminal case.

The distinguishing features of a criminal trial are what are known in the language of the law as a presumption of innocence and the burden of proof

1 beyond a reasonable doubt. The law presumes a 2 defendant to be innocent of crime, thus a defendant, 3 although accused, begins a trial with a clean slate 4 with no evidence against him. The presumption of 5 innocence alone is sufficient to acquit a defendant 6 unless and until you are satisfied beyond a reasonable 7 doubt of the defendant's quilt after careful and 8 impartial consideration of all the evidence in the 9 case.

10 This last mentioned requirement, that you be 11 satisfied beyond a reasonable doubt of defendant's 12 quilt, is what is called the "burden of proof". It is 13 not required that the prosecution prove quilt beyond 14 all possible doubt, for it is rarely possible to prove 15 anything to an absolute certainty. Rather, the test is 16 one of reasonable doubt. A reasonable doubt is doubt 17 based upon reason and common sense. The kind of doubt 18 that would make a reasonable person hesitate to act in 19 his or her important affairs. Proof beyond a 20 reasonable doubt must, therefore, be proof of such a 21 convincing character that you would be willing to rely 22 and act upon it in your important affairs.

A defendant is never to be convicted on mere suspicion or conjecture. The burden of proving the defendant guilty beyond a reasonable doubt always rests

upon the prosecution. This burden never shifts throughout the trial, for the law never imposes upon the defendant in a criminal case the burden or duty of calling any witnesses or producing any evidence.

The defendant has the absolute right not to testify and you must not draw any inference against the defendant if he does not testify. Thus, a reasonable doubt may arise, not only from the evidence produced, but also from a lack of evidence. Since the burden is upon the prosecution to prove every essential element of the crime charged beyond a reasonable doubt, the defendant has the right to rely upon failure of the prosecution to establish such proof.

A defendant may also rely upon evidence brought out on cross examination of witnesses for the prosecution. That instruction sets forth three fundamental principles of our Alaska and United States criminal justice system:

First is the presumption of innocence. The defendant, Joseph Hazelwood, is presumed innocent at this state of the proceeding, for there is no evidence against him. He stands here like any of us might, with no evidence against us, with the presumption of innocence.

The second is that the state must prove the defendant, by proof beyond a reasonable doubt, guilty of all the charges against him. That burden never shifts, the defendant is under no obligation to call witnesses or produce evidence.

5 Third is the defendant's right to remain 6 silent. He cannot be compelled to incriminate himself, 7 he cannot be compelled to take the witness stand and 8 you must not in any way infer anything adverse against 9 the defendant. He has the constitutional right not to 10 testify.

11 Now, I read to you that the presumption of 12 innocence alone is sufficient to acquit a defendant 13 unless and until you are satisfied beyond a reasonable 14 doubt of the defendant's guilt after careful and 15 impartial consideration of all the evidence in the 16 case. The jury must decide this case based solely on 17 the evidence presented in this case. That evidence 18 consists of the sworn testimony of witnesses who take 19 the witness stand, consists of exhibits which are 20 admitted into the record, it consists sometimes of 21 agreed statements of facts by the attorneys, and in 22 some cases it consists of what facts this court 23 judicially notices. Those are generally facts that 24 nobody would dispute. It consists of no other information. Any other sources of information may not 25

One of the purposes of jury selection is to determine whether or not jurors can unequivocally demonstrate that they can decide the issues based solely on the evidence, and in making this determination, counsel and the Court might explore in some detail the exposure that you have to the pre-trial publicity of this case and the impact on that pre-trial publicity. Counsel want to know, to some extent, what you know about the case, based on what you're heard, read or seen from any source, including media sources, and then counsel may want to know if you've formed any opinions concerning the guilt or innocence, however slight, of the defendant in this case, or you've formed any opinions concerning the state, adverse or favorable, however slight.

Now, just because you have seen something about this case, you've read something or somebody has told you about the case does not disqualify you from jury service in this case. And just because you have formed an opinion concerning the facts in this case or whether, however slight, you believe that the defendant is guilty of some crime, or the state may be guilty of something, you may have an unfavorable feeling about

1 the state or a favorable feeling about the state, just 2 because you may have formed those opinions does not 3 disgualify you from jury service. The questions will 4 be whether or not you can demonstrate unequivocally 5 your ability to set aside this information and set 6 aside any opinions or feelings you may have derived 7 from this information and base your conclusions in this 8 case solely on the evidence that's presented in this 9 case, the evidence I just described to you. 10 I recognize the inconvenience that jurors may 11 suffer if they are given the opportunity to serve on 12 this jury. However, in my opinion, and I say this to 13 every prospective jury panel, it is an honor and a 14 privilege to serve on a jury. Most judges will never 15 get an opportunity to serve on the jury. I don't know 16 what goes on in the deliberation room and I probably 17 never will. Most lawyers never get that opportunity. 18 As closely as we are associated to it, we don't really 19 You have an opportunity to do something that know. 20 I'll never get a chance to do, I'm sure. It's a 21 privilege and an honor. And in this case I think 22 you're going to find it to be a most interesting 23 experience. While it's going to require a commitment 24 of up to two months, possibly, I think you'll find it's 25 worth the commitment. It'll be an experience that nobody who participates in it will ever forget.

Now, there may be reasons that you cannot serve on this jury. There may be some extreme financial hardship, some medical reasons. You'll be asked question number two on the blackboard, if there are any reasons you should not serve on this jury. Ι expect you will be very candid with me. If you do not want to serve on this jury, you'll be able to come up with an answer that will excuse you, I'm sure of that. Before you do that, think of the opportunity you'll be giving up. On the other hand, if there are some bona fide reasons that you think you should not serve on the jury, reasons that go to your ability to set aside information, reasons that go to your ability to be fair and impartial, please be candid with us, because both sides want and deserve a fair trial in this case. There are certain prejudices we possibly all possess and some of them are very petty prejudices, and it's a sign of maturity that we can set aside most of these prejudices and decide important issues on information and not the basis of personal prejudices. But in any event, if you have a prejudice here or bias that you cannot set aside, it will influence your ability to decide this case on the evidence, you cannot demonstrate you can unequivocally set it aside, let us

1 know. We've got lots of you here and we can get more, 2 and we're going to get a fair and impartial jury 3 eventually. So, just be candid and we'll work our way 4 through it.

5 During the course of jury selection and during 6 the course of the trial, prospective jurors and those 7 who are selected as jurors will be excused from time to 8 time. When you are excused, whether it be overnight or 9 during a trial day, at this time I'm instructing you 10 not to talk about this case to anyone, including among 11 yourselves and not permit anyone to talk to you about 12 If anybody should approach you and commence to it. 13 talk to you about it in their presence, please avoid it 14 and report that exposure to me.

15 Please do not converse with the attorneys, do 16 not converse with the witnesses, the parties or any of 17 the staff of the attorneys at any place, hall or any 18 other location. Now, I'm sure your conversation will 19 be perfectly harmless, but it may give the appearance 20 of a bias for or against one of the parties. You don't 21 have to leave your common courtesy out, you can say 22 hello, but don't engage in any conversation so you can 23 be in the best possible position to render a fair and 24 impartial verdict if you are given the opportunity to. I'm instructing you now that during the 25

selection of the jury process and during the course of the trial, if you're selected, that you avoid exposure to any media reports about this case, newspaper, radio, television. It may be more difficult than you think. You'll have to have your newspapers, you'll have to have your television screened for you, but it's important you do that.

If you are selected to the jury, you are not to form or express an opinion concerning any issue in the case, nor discuss the case among other jurors. If you are excused from jury service for any reason, then you'll be excused from these instructions.

The jury's role is to ultimately make a decision of whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the offenses charged. The jury is a fact-finding body. The Court's role is to instruct the jury on the law that they should apply in coming to this result. Now, the jury must follow the Court's instructions on the law, regardless of what they think the law is or what it should be or what somebody may have told them it is.

Is there anybody here that thinks that they would not be able to follow that fundamental principle? The Court instructs on the law, the jury follows the Court's instructions on the law. Anybody here think

1 they can't make that commitment at this time? (Pause) 2 Thank you. 3 Is there anybody here that disagrees with the 4 fundamental principles I read earlier about the 5 defendant being presumed innocent, the state having the 6 burden of proving the defendant guilty by proof beyond 7 a reasonable doubt? Is there anybody here who 8 disagrees with that fundamental principle of U.S. 9 criminal jurisprudence? If so, raise your hand. 10 Nobody raised their hand. (Pause) 11 Are there any jurors who are not at least 18 12 years of age? If so, raise your hand. 13 Any jurors who are not citizens and residents; 14 citizens of the United States and residents of the 15 state of Alaska? If so, raise your hand. 16 Any jurors unable to read and speak the 17 English language and also understand the English 18 language when it's spoken? If so, raise your hand. 19 Any jurors suffering from any mental 20 disabilities which would render you not of sound mind? 21 Okay. Nobody raised their hand to those questions 22 either. 23 We're going to be doing individual jury 24 questions. Your name will be called and when your turn 25 comes, you'll sit in the jury box where these folks are

We record everything in this court, so you'll be speaking into a microphone, and then the attorneys will ask some follow-up questions. The purpose is to obtain information concerning your qualification to be fair and impartial. It's not to harass you, it's not to embarrass you. Although some questions may prove to be embarrassing, they're not intended to be. If we get into an area that's extremely sensitive to you, let me know and maybe I can limit it. I doubt that will happen in this case, but if we do, I'll see what I can do about it.

We're going to call approximately 30 names, I think, initially, and when you hear your name called, the first 30 are going to be asked to go next door to Courtroom A, and that's where you'll be seated while we try to select from you today. Then we'll call 30 additional names. The second set of 30 names may go home and come back tomorrow morning to the jury assembly room. That's where you assembled today. The remainder of you, which will be approximately 35, 37, may also go home. If you haven't heard your name, you

1 may also go home, and then you are to return on 2 Thursday to the jury assembly room. You are all still 3 prospective jurors, but there's no need for you to wait 4 around here while we plow through the first 30. I'm 5 doing that with the expectation that you will all 6 return, and we will call the role each day. When you 7 are down in the jury assembly room, the instructions 8 I've given you not to discuss the case still hold, and 9 they hold when you go home as well.

10 We've given you all a list, at least I believe 11 we have, of the potential witnesses to be called in 12 this case. Now, I remind you at this time that the 13 defendant is under no obligation to call a witness or 14 any obligation to produce any evidence in this case. 15 I've given you that list so you can intelligently 16 answer question number four, if you know, among others, 17 witnesses in the case. Now, maybe not all these people 18 are going to be called but we want to cover all the 19 bases to make sure. We wouldn't want you to turn up 20 being the brother to one of these people or sister or 21 have some special relationship with one of these 22 people. So that's why you are given that information 23 now, so you can intelligently answer that question. 24 Before we call off the names of the first 30° 25 and then the second 30, I'm going to have counsel

COLE: Thank you, Your Honor. Good 8 morning, ladies and gentlemen. My name is Brent Cole. 9 I'm an assistant district attorney in Anchorage, 10 During the course of this trial I will be Alaska. 11 assisted by Mr. Sam Adams, who is standing right here 12 with Mary Anne Henry. They are both assistants in our 13 office. Also there will be a state trooper 14 investigator that you may see occasionally. His name 15 is Sergeant Jim Stogsdill. 16 Thank you, Your Honor. 17 Ladies and gentlemen, my name is MR. MADSON: 18 Dick Madson. I'm the attorney that unfortunately lives 19 in Fairbanks most of the time, but for the time being, 20 I'll be here. Sitting next to me is 21 Mr. Michael Chalos. He is friend of the defendant, 22 Joseph Hazelwood. Mr. Chalos is an attorney from 23 New York. Also a member of his firm, who is present 24 and will be assisting also is Mr. Tom Russo, sitting in 25 the first row here.

| 2 | THE COURT: At this time, ladies and |

At the completion of challenges for cause, when we have 12 jurors seated, the attorneys are entitled to exercise what we call peremptory challenges. No reason need be specified. That is, once again, rights that are afforded the attorneys under Alaska Rules of Criminal Procedure. If you are excused pursuant to peremptory challenge, please don't be offended by it, then I will give you your card and you will go downstairs to the jury clerk.

If you are excused for any reason, Mr. Purden will have your little slip, your little jury card, take that from Mr. Purden downstairs to the jury clerk for further instructions, but you will be excused from this jury service once that occurs. You may -- and if you want or it looks like it would be appropriate, be given the opportunity to serve on another jury if you're excused.

So, at this time, Mr. Purden will call off the

There is generally the 20 jury qualification one they fill out and then there's 21 the jury questionnaire they fill out as well. 22 MR. MADSON: I see. | 1 | A | I'm capable of flying, yes, at this time. |
| 2 | Q | Are you working right now? |
| 3 | A | I'm employed. |
| 4 | Q | Who do you work for? |
| 5 | A | Department of Interior. |
| 6 | Q | Have you been flying this month? |
| 7 | A | Repeat the question. |
| 8 | Q | Have you been flying this month? This month. |
| 9 | A | Yes, I've flown this month. |
| 10 | Q | Where are some of the flights you've taken |
| 11 | | recently? |
| 12 | A | Only as far as down to Kenai and back, that's |
| 13 | | all the further. Correction, I've also been to |
| 14 | | King Salmon. |
| 15 | Q | Have you, during the course of your |
| 16 | | employment, flown over the Prince William Sound? |
| 17. | A | Yes, I have. |
| 18 | Q | Has that been since the Exxon Valdez went |
| 19 | | aground? |
| 20 | A | Yes. |
| 21 | Q | And have you been able to observe some of the |
| 22 | | damage that's been done to Prince William Sound |
| 23 | | and other areas? |
| 24 | A | If you'd speak a little louder, I could hear |
| 25 | | you. |

| 5 | Q | How has that affected you has that affected |
| 6 | | you, would it affect your ability to be fair and |
| 7 | : | impartial? |
| 8 | A | No, it doesn't affect me one way or another. |
| 9 | | I've seen lots of oil spills and it doesn't |
| 10 | | bother me any. |
| 11 | Q | Your questionnaire indicates that you've |
| 12 | | served on juries before. |
| 13 | A | One. |
| 14 | Q | Do you remember if it was a criminal or civil |
| 15 | | matter? |
| 16 | A | It was a fisheries violation. |
| 17 | Q | Was that up here in Alaska? |
| 18 | А | Yes, it was. It was at Cold Bay. |
| 19 | Q | Cold Bay. Were you the foreman on that jury? |
| 20 | A | No, I was not. |
| 21 | Q | Anything that came about in the course of your |
| 22 | | jury service that made you unhappy with the |
| 23 | | criminal justice system or uncomfortable with the |
| 24 | | system? |
| 25 | А | Not really. |

| 1 | Q | Did you find it a satisfying experience? |
|----|---|--|
| 2 | A | I suppose so. |
| 3 | Q | Well, do you have any bad feelings that came |
| 4 | | out of it? |
| 5 | A | About juries? |
| 6 | Q | Yes. |
| 7 | A | No, I don't have any bad feelings about juries |
| 8 | | or court proceedings. |
| 9 | Q | Are there any special regulations do you |
| 10 | | have your commercial rating? |
| 11 | A | I'm an airline transport pilot, yes. |
| 12 | Q | Are there any special regulations concerning |
| 13 | | when a person can drink and fly? |
| 14 | A | Yes, there is. |
| 15 | Q | What are those? |
| 16 | A | It depends on which one you're after. If |
| 17 | | you're after the FAA, it says eight hours before |
| 18 | | or when under the influence. You cannot fly when |
| 19 | | you're under the influence. |
| 20 | Q | The eight hours before, why do they have that? |
| 21 | A | Obviously to preclude any possibility of |
| 22 | | operating when you are under the influence, I |
| 23 | | suppose. |
| 24 | Q | As a commercial pilot it appears that to be a |
| 25 | | pilot you have to know quite a bit about |
| | | |

| 1 | | regulations. Would you agree that there is quite |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | a few regulations surrounding the aviation field? |
| 3 | A | Considerable. |
| 4 | Q | Do you have any opinion on whether that's good |
| 5 | | or bad? Strong opinions on that. |
| 6 | A | Obviously it's good. |
| 7 | Q | You indicated in your questionnaire that |
| 8 | | you've heard information about this case. |
| 9 | A | As a resident of Anchorage, how can you miss? |
| 10 | Q | Have you formed any opinions about the roles |
| 11 | | and responsibilities of any people in this oil |
| 12 | | spill? |
| 13 | A | No. |
| 14 | Q | And would you be willing to set aside anything |
| 15 | | you might have learned prior to this and of the |
| 16 | | Judge's instructions, base your decision on the |
| 17 | | evidence that you hear from the witnesses, the |
| 18 | | evidence that's presented and admitted in court |
| 19 | | and your own common sense and good judgment; do |
| 20 | | you have any problems following that |
| 21 | | instruction? |
| 22 | A | No, I don't have any problem with it. |
| 23 | Q | Do you understand, I assume, the importance of |
| 24 | | this case, both to Mr. Hazelwood and the state of |
| 25 | | Alaska, would you be willing to listen to the |
| | | · |

| 1 | evidence and reach a fair and just verdict as was |
|----|---|
| 2 | promised by listening to the evidence, looking at |
| 3 | the exhibits and using your own common sense and |
| 4 | good judgment? |
| 5 | A When I told you I'm familiar with this case, |
| 6 | I'm only familiar with what I've read. I'm not |
| 7 | sure what he's charged with at this time. I can |
| 8 | assure you that if I serve on the jury, I will be |
| 9 | fair and impartial to the best of my ability, and |
| 10 | which is all I can say. |
| 11 | Q Would you be willing to give both sides a fair |
| 12 | trial in this case? |
| 13 | A That has been my creed for the last 65 years. |
| 14 | I suppose I can continue, yeah. |
| 15 | Q And be willing to reach a fair and just |
| 16 | verdict for both parties? |
| 17 | A That has been my objective throughout my life. |
| 18 | I don't intend to change. |
| 19 | MR. COLE: Thank you. I have nothing further, |
| 20 | Your Honor. |
| 21 | THE COURT: I assume when you don't say |
| 22 | anything, you're passing for cause. |
| 23 | MR. COLE: That's right. |
| 24 | THE COURT: Thank you. |

| 1 | BY MR | . MADSON: |
| 2 | Q | Good morning, Mr. Belleau. It is Belleau, |
| 3 | | isn't it? |
| 4 | A | Yes, it is. |
| 5 | Q | Sir, I noticed you asked Mr. Cole to speak up. |
| 6 | • | Do you have a hearing problem at all or can you |
| 7 | | hear me okay? |
| 8 | A | I hear you okay. I have a hearing problem, |
| 9 | | yes. |
| 10 | Q | What kind of plane did you fly? Let me ask |
| 11 | | you that, what type of aircraft? |
| 12 | A | I fly from single engine airplanes of 150 |
| 13 | | horsepower on up to four-engine turbo prop |
| 14 | | transports. |
| 15 | Q | Well, you have a multi-engine rating then? |
| 16 | A | Yes, I do. |
| 17 | Q | When you are flying a four-engine plane, for |
| 18 | | instance, do you normally have a co-pilot with |
| 19 | | you or do you fly just alone? |
| 20 | А | The airplane I fly has a co-pilot and a flight |
| 21 | | engineer on it, if I fly it. |
| 22 | Q | So, it's a three-man crew actually? |
| 23 | А | Yes, one-man, two-man or three-man crew. |

Others are relatively low-time pilots. 6 Each case merits a different set of 7 circumstances. 8 Sure. Q 9 Α I attend to those as they arise. 10 In other words you feel much more confident 0 11 with certain people flying with you than with 12 others you just don't know, right? 13 Obviously, yes. Α 14 0 You know, some of my questions are rather 15 obvious. But when you have someone there that 16 you've flown with for say some hours and you know 17 he's a very competent person, that gives you more 18 of a feeling of confidence yourself, that you can 19 kind of relax a little bit, you don't have to 20 watch everything he's doing and things like 21 this... 22 THE COURT: Excuse me. | 11 | Q Do you work for BLM, sir? |
| 12 | A No, sir, I don't. I work for the Department |
| 13 | of Interior. |
| 14 | Q Okay. It's not Bureau of Land Management |
| 15 | though, is it? |
| 16 | A Bureau of Land Management is one of the |
| 17 | agencies within the Department of Interior. |
| 18 | Q I see. But you work for just the Department |
| 19 | of Interior itself? |
| 20 | A The organization I work for is reports |
| 21 | directly to the Office of the Secretary, known as |
| 22 | the Office of Aircraft Services. |
| 23 | Q Well, how many hours a week or a month do you |
| 24 | actually fly then, sir? |
| 25 | A At this time I don't engage in too much |

| 5 | Q | But that's mostly in the summer? Is that when |
| 6 | | you normally do it, more hours in the summer than |
| 7 | | the winter, sir? |
| 8 | A | Yes. |
| 9 | Q | As your job is flight training person, you're |
| 10 | | actually training other pilots then for BLM? |
| 11 | A | You refer to BLM |
| 12 | Q | Excuse me, the Department of Interior. |
| 13 | A | BLM does not have any pilots in Alaska, so I |
| 14 | | don't train them. |
| 15 | Q | When you were a juror in the case in Cold Bay, |
| 16 | | that's down in the Aleutians, right? |
| 17 | A | It is near the Aleutians. Yes, it is down |
| 18 | | near the Aleutians. It's still on the Alaska |
| 19 | | Peninsula. |
| 20 | Q | I guess I'm wondering if you lived were you |
| 21 | | living there at the time? |
| 22 | A | Yes, I was. |
| 23 | Q | Were you still working for the Department of |

Do you have any 11 reservations about serving on the jury at all? 12 Α Except for the time that I'd be forced to 13 commit myself, none. 14 0 Okav. I take it working for the Department of 15 Interior would not impose such a financial or 16 other kind of hardship on you that you felt you 17 couldn't sit here for two months, perhaps, and 18 listen to all the evidence and take whatever time 19 you need to deliberate and all that? 20 I believe that the Department of Interior will Α 21 continue to pay my wages. 22 Now, with regard to what you read and heard Q 23 about this case, I think you answered it probably 24 better than anyone could when you say, how can 25 you live here and not know about it. Α 5 0 Is that the way you normally are? You 6 expressed that to Mr. Cole, you said that's been 7 your creed all your life. Can you explain that 8 at all? I mean is that just the way you look at 9 things, saying, I believe in not forming an 10 opinion until I'm sure; is that what it comes 11 down to? 12 Α It depends entirely on the circumstances. Ι 13 don't know anything about his job. I don't even 14 know what took place. 15 Do you know anything at all about the Q 16 regulations on a ship? 17 No, I don't. I'm not too familiar with them. 1 there's a conflict in the two, you can just 2 listen to the evidence here and not think about 3 what the regulations might be in your profession, 4 as far as FAA is concerned? In other words, put 5 that out of your mind? 6 Α I feel reasonably confident that I can do 7 that. 8 Obviously the regulations for a ship would be 0 9 considerably different than an airplane, right? 10 Whether it involves alcohol or ... 11 Α I don't know, but I would assume it is. Ocean 12 vessels travel at a slower speed, not under 13 control of various people, and obviously it's 14 different. 15 And you know, of course, as an airline pilot 0 16 that accidents happen with airplanes, too? 17 Yes, but I haven't had any. Α 18 0 Well, I hope you're not due. 19 THE COURT: Let's go on, please. 20 Would you agree, sir, that sometimes accidents 0 21 happen, and it's due to something called pilot 22 error? 23 MR. | 6 | MR. MADSON: Well, Your Honor, |
| 7 | THE COURT: So, don't ask that question again. |
| 8 | I gave you an opportunity to bring that up if you |

| 20 | A Martini before dinner. Sometimes I do more |

| 22 | average. |
| 23 | Q So you obviously then don't hold it against |

| 4 | Q. | When you were flying over Prince William |
| 5 | | Sound, what was the purpose in doing this; why |
| 6 | | were you there? |
| 7 | А | I flew quite a few trips over Prince William |

| 9 | | bird damage observation patrols is what they |
| 10 | | were, or other things that were in recent |
| 11 | ı | years, in the last year or so, the observation |
| 12 | | was all the flights were observation or |

| 16 | | observing things and taking notes or photographs |
| 17 | | or something while your job was to fly the |
| 18 | | aircraft or did you have to do something |

| 21 | Q | You're just concerned about, you know, making |
| 22 | - | sure you're in the right place and safety and |

1 from your observations now, nothing to do with 2 your job, just your personal observations, did 3 vou feel that someone should be held accountable 4 or responsible for what you saw there? Do you 5 have any feelings like that at all? 6 Not really. I was not surprised that this oil Α 7 spill -- I was slightly surprised of the 8 magnitude of it, that's all. 9 Q Have you ever fished down there, just sport 10 fished at all? 11 No, I have not. Α 12 MR. MADSON: One second. That's all the 13 questions I have, Your Honor. Pass for cause. 14 THE COURT: Mr. Belleau, I'm going to excuse 15 you for the rest of the day, but you'll have to come 16 back to the jury assembly room downstairs tomorrow 17 morning at 8:30 for further instructions. 18 Mr. Belleau, before you leave, just a minute. 19 I don't see the need for you to come back tomorrow 20 morning at 8:30 because we're not going to get through 21 everybody by then. I 3 think it should be known up front that I'm a 4 captain on a Convair 580 aircraft, and I have 5 done a lot of flying over the area during the oil 6 spill and after. I'm also related in the oil 7 industry, not only in contracts with the oil 8 companies, Alyeska Pipeline, and I have worked 9 for the oil company up on the North Slope. Α 21 Do you know a pilot by the name of Jeff Sharp? 0 22 Yes, I do. Α 23 And how long have you known him? Did you know 0 24 him when he worked for Era back in 1983? 25 Yes, I did. Α

1 Yes, sir. Α 2 Do you have strong opinions or feelings about 0 3 the extent of the regulations that industry 4 dictates; strong feelings either favorably or 5 against them? 6 Α Well, the one thing that comes to my mind are 7 duties and responsibilities of a pilot in 8 command, and that's something that's ingrained in 9 me pretty deeply. 10 You have some strong feelings about the fact 0 11 that a captain of an aircraft has the ultimate 12 responsibility? 13 Yes, I do. Α 14 When you worked out of -- did you work out of Q 15 Prudhoe Bay when you worked for Era? 16 Yes, sir. Α 17 Q What were the alcohol restrictions when you 18 worked up there; were there any in the camp that 19 you stayed at? 20 Α There was none allowed in my company building. 21 That was a standing rule with Rowen Drilling, who 22 owns Era Aviation, and I don't -- I don't have 23 any first knowledge of anybody that's been 24 drinking in any of the camps that I was in. 25 Were you aware whether people were drinking at Q

|----|---|---|
| 2 | A | No, sir. |
| 3 | Q | And do you still fly the Convair what are |
| 4 | | the camps that are still up there right now? |
| 5 | A | Are you talking about the oil camps we go to |
| 6 | | and service? |
| 7 | Q | Yes. |
| 8 | A | We service with Alyeska Pipeline crew changes, |
| 9 | | Galbraith, Prospect Creek, we also do some out of |
| 10 | | Big Delta, Gulkana, those areas. |
| 11 | Q | Do you ever have to stay in any of the camps |
| 12 | | up there? |
| 13 | A | I've been in all of the camps. |
| 14 | Q | And actually stayed there, or it's just |
| 15 | | generally fly in and fly out? |
| 16 | А | Yes, except when we have maintenance problems, |
| 17 | | then we have to stay for a while. |
| 18 | Q | Now, you've indicated that you flew over the |
| 19 | | Prince William area after the oil spill. |
| 20 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 21 | Q | You've made quite a few flights. It's my |
| 22 | | understanding that Era instituted a commercial |
| 23 | | flight into Valdez and, for most of the summer, |
| 24 | | almost three times a day or twice a day? |
| 25 | А | That's a service that we did add, due to the |

| 1 | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | | oil spill this year, but it has been in the past. |
| 2 | | It's been for tour groups. We've added the extra |
| 3 | | flight for tour groups in the evenings and stuff. |
| 4 | Q | Would it be fair to say that Era has profited |
| 5 | | quite heavily by this oil spill? |
| 6 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 7 | Q | In fact you bought special Convairs just to |
| 8 | | provide the extra services? |
| 9 | А | We did purchase a Convair aircraft after the |
| 10 | | oil spill. |
| 11 | ģ | Do you believe the fact that how do you |
| 12 | | think the fact that your company has profited |
| 13 | 1 | the company that you've worked for for a long |
| 14 | 1 | period of time, has profited by the oil spill; |
| 15 | | would it affect your ability to be fair and |
| 16 | | impartial? |
| 17 | А | I'd like to think it wouldn't affect my |
| 18 | | ability to be impartial. |
| 19 | Q | If you are selected on this jury and during |
| 20 | | the course of the trial you found that you could |
| 21 | | not put that out of your mind, would you be |
| 22 | | willing to bring that to the attention of the |
| 23 | | Court and both to Mr. Madson and myself? |
| 24 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 25 | Q | You understand the importance that we have in |

| 1 | | relying upon your answers right now and if in the |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | midstream you change your mind about whether you |
| 3 | | can be objective or not, that is something that |
| 4 | | needs to be brought to our attention. |
| 5 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 6 | Q | The publicity that you've heard about this |
| 7 | | case, have you formed any opinion at this point |
| 8 | | of the roles or responsibilities of any of the |
| 9 | | people that were involved or any of the |
| 10 | | businesses, like corporations or the Coast Guard |
| 11 | | or Alyeska, have you formed any opinions about |
| 12 | | the roles and responsibilities of the various |
| 13 | | parties? |
| 14 | A | I don't believe I have formed any particular |
| 15 | | opinion. |
| 16 | Q | Have you worked out of Fairbanks? |
| 17 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 18 | Q | Did you live in Fairbanks for a while? |
| 19 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 20 | Q | Have you ever had any legal work done when you |
| 21 | | were in Fairbanks? |
| 22 | A | I had a will made up that I can remember. |
| 23 | | That's probably the extent of it that I can |
| 24 | | remember. |
| 25 | Q | Mr. Madson works in Fairbanks as an attorney. |

| 3 | A | Not that I can recall, no. |
| 4 | Q | And my father and uncle are both attorneys in |
| 5 | | Fairbanks. Does Charlie Cole or Richard Cole |
| 6 | | ring any bells? |
| 7 | A | No, sir. |
| 8 | Q | I'd like to ask you a question about one of |
| 9 | | the answers you gave. You indicated that you |
| 10 | | were almost run over by a DWI |
| 11 | A | My aunt was. That has been a long time ago |
| 12 | | when I was I tried to answer it as truthfully |
| 13 | | as I could, |
| 14 | Q | Sure. |
| 15 | A | and from my recollection I was about eight |
| 16 | | years old. My aunt was run over by a DWI and |
| 17 | | broke one of her legs, I think, it was. |
| 18 | Q | Anything about that incident that would affect |
| 19 | | your ability to be fair and impartial here? |
| 20 | A | No, sir. |
| 21 | Q | And you also indicated that you had been a |
| 22 | | victim of a crime, and you indicated robbery. |
| 23 | | Can you tell me a little bit about that? |
| 24 | A | Yeah, some tools were stolen. Now, here |
| 25 | | again, I just to include everything, some |

| ſ | | |
|----|-----|--|
| 1 | | tools were stolen out of the back of my vehicle, |
| 2 | | and that's been about 14 years ago. |
| 3 | Q | Do you have any feelings anything about |
| 4 | | that incident that would affect your ability to |
| 5 | | be fair and impartial? |
| 6 | А | No, sir. |
| 7 | Q . | Can you tell me what you do in your spare |
| 8 | | time, Mr. Gerard? |
| 9 | A | I don't have a lot of spare time. I'm also |
| 10 | | the chief pilot at Era in the 121 program, and |
| 11 | | that takes up a lot of my time. In my spare time |
| 12 | | I'm mostly with my family, what spare time I |

| 14 | Q | I'm not familiar with the 121 program. |
| 15 | A | That's the Convair aircraft. It's a 121 |
| 16 | | program and the twin otters are in the 135 |
| 17 | | program. |
| 18 | Q | Are you responsible for supervising other |
| 19 | | employees? |
| 21 | Q | In the course of your supervision have you |
| 22 | | been asked to write up evaluations about their |

1 fire an employee? 2 Α Yes, sir. 3 (Pause) 4 MR. COLE: I'm just going over my notes here. 5 If chosen as a juror in this case, you'll be 0 6 asked to base your decision on the evidence that 7 you hear here in court, the evidence that is 8 admitted by the court and your own common sense 9 and good judgment. Would you feel comfortable in 10 making that -- in playing that role? 11 Α Yes, sir. 12 Q Do you understand the importance of this case, 13 both to Mr. Hazelwood -- Captain Hazelwood and to 14 the state of Alaska; would you be willing to give 15 both sides a fair trial? 16 Yes, sir. Α 17 0 Would you be willing to reach a fair and just 18 verdict based on the evidence you hear that is 19 presented and the evidence that is admitted and 20 your own common sense and good judgment? 21 Α Yes, I will. 22 Judge, I have no further questions. MR. COLE: 23 Pass for cause. 24 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION OF ROBERT L. GERARD 25 BY MR. CHALOS:

| 1 | Q | Mr. Gerard, when Mr. Cole asked you if you |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | would be willing to give both sides a fair trial, |
| 3 | | you seemed to hesitate. Is there a reason for |
| 4 | | that? |
| 5 | А | I wanted to make sure I had a proper response |
| 6 | | and that I could live with that response. |
| 7 | Q | Do you feel that your response was proper? |
| 8 | А | Yes, I do. |
| 9 | Q | You mentioned that you are involved with |
| 10 | | Alyeska and some of the other oil companies. Can |
| 11 | | you tell me what that involvement is? |
| 12 | A | We do weekly crew changes for Alyeska Pipeline |
| 13 | | Service Company along the whole entire pipeline |
| 14 | | route, from Deadhorse all the way down and |
| 15 | | occasionally extra charter flights for Alyeska, |
| 16 | | for whatever needs that they may have. |
| 17 | Q | In the course of performing those duties have |
| 18 | | you ever discussed the spill with anyone? |
| 19 | A | Not that I can recall directly, no. |
| 20 | Q | Has anyone expressed any opinions to you or in |
| 21 | | your presence about the spill? |
| 22 | A | On those particular flights, no, not that I |
| 23 | | can recall. I'm pretty much in the front of the |
| 24 | | airplane for the whole time and I don't really |
| 25 | | interact with the passengers. |

1 What type of plane do you fly? Q 2 It's a Convair 580, 50-passenger aircraft. Α 3 Do you have a co-pilot? 0 4 Yes, I do. Α 5 Do you sometimes turn the controls over to the Q 6 co-pilot? 7 Yes, I do. Α 8 What criteria do you use in turning over the 0 9 controls to the co-pilot? 10 Α We basically fly every other -- what we call 11 legs, every other trip. From point A to point B, 12 I might fly the trip, and then from point B back 13 to A, the first officer would fly. 14 Do you sometimes leave the cockpit when that 0 15 occurs? 16 The only time that we can really leave the Α 17 cockpit is for physiological needs and then 18 basically go to the restroom and come back to the 19 flight deck. 20 Q I'd like to ask you about an answer you gave 21 here relating to the information you heard about 22 the oil spill. You mentioned here, "Captain 23 Hazelwood's drinking on duty." What was the 24 source of that information? 25 I watch CNN news quite a bit and I think that Α

Α 9 Q Have you read any accounts of the spill in the 10 Daily News? 11 Α We just started the subscription on that last 12 week, so it's been since last week on that paper. 13 0 After March 24th have you read the Daily 14 News... 15 Α I read it every day. 16 0 ... in respect to the oil spill? 17 I read it every day. 1 to Captain Hazelwood's involvement with the spill 2 as a result of what you heard on television or 3 read in newspapers? 4 Α No, sir, I don't believe I have. 5 0 Have you formed any opinion with respect to 6 Captain Hazelwood's drinking on duty? 7 Α I don't have a personal opinion on it, only 8 what I've read and seen in the news. 9 Do you have any feelings at all about ships Q 10 officers drinking while on-board the vessel? 11 In aviation, at least in the 121 program that Α 12 we're in, it's 12 hours prior to duty the flight 13 officers are not allowed to drink, and I 14 subscribe to that pretty heavily, and I request 15 that of all the people underneath me. And we 16 monitor that very closely. That's one of the 17 things we do watch for. 18 Have you ever drank and went on-board an Q 19 airplane flight? 20 Α No, sir, I have never done that. 21 Do you have any opinion as to whether a ship's 0 22 officers should adhere to the same stringent 23 standards as you have in an airplane? 24 Α I honestly don't know what ships captains or 25 any other officer aboard the ship are required to

| 1 | | do. I don't know what the regulations are. |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | Q | If there were a regulation that one could not |
| 3 | | drink within "X" number of hours before going |
| 4 | | on-board, would you have any feelings about that? |
| 5 | А | If it was their regulation, yes, I would. |
| 6 | Q | Now, the second part of your answer says, "Not |
| 7 | , | being in direct command of the vessel." Was that |
| 8 | | something you heard in the news as well? |
| 9 | A | Yes, it was. |
| 10 | Q | Do you have any feelings as to whether a |
| 11 | | captain should be on the bridge of a ship the |
| 12 | | entire time of a voyage? |
| 13 | A | That was just something I had heard and picked |
| 14 | | up on. I can't recall the source, but it was |
| 15 | | something that I did hear and I wanted to list it |
| 16 | | down there. I don't know what the regulations |
| 17 | | are and what they can or cannot do. I do not |
| 18 | | know. |
| 19 | Q | Do you have an opinion as to what a ship |
| 20 | | master is ultimately responsible for, what |
| 21 | | happens on the ship? |
| 22 | A | I have a feeling the regulations that I have |
| 23 | | to go by, where I am directly responsible for my |

| 25 | | only flight attendants or first officers aboard |

| A | There was a $1,000.00 deductible, I think, on |
| | the aircraft, I think, and the damage was a |

| Q | Now, when was the first time that you over |

| | spill? |
| A | I believe I'd have to look in my flight log, |

| | was either a day or two days after. |
| Q | Had the oil started to spread at that time? |
| A | It was really not that noticeable from the |
| | air. They had good weather for the next couple |
| | days, as I can recall. It was really not that |
| | noticeable from the air, from the altitudes that |
| | we were at. |
| Q | When you over flew the area did you have any |
| | passengers on-board? |
| А | Yes, sir. |
| Q | What was the purpose of your over flying the |

| A | Well, the route of flight takes us directly |

| _ | | |
|----|-----|---|
| 1 | | in. When we go in on our approach it takes us |
| 2 | | just south of the face of Columbia Glacier and, |
| 3 | | like I say, the weather was really good that |
| 4 | | at that time and we could see the tanker just |
| 5 | | outside the narrows. There was no problem seeing |
| 6 | | the tanker there. |
| 7 | Q | At that time did you express any opinions as |
| 8 | | to the incident at all to anyone? |
| 9 | A | I think I made a comment to my first officer |
| 10 | | that when I looked down, when I first saw it for |
| 11 | | myself, that it looked like the tanker was |
| 12 | | sideways for whether normally I've seen tankers |
| 13 | | going through the narrows. |
| 14 | Q | Do you have any opinion as to |
| 15 | | Captain Hazelwood's role in this particular |
| 16 | | incident? |
| 17 | A | He was the, as I understand it, the captain of |
| 18 | | the vessel at the time. That's about it. |
| 19 | Q | Is it your opinion as a captain that he has |
| 20 | | the ultimate responsibility for this grounding? |
| 21 | - A | Yes, sir. |
| 22 | Q. | Criminal or otherwise? |
| 23 | A | I don't know about criminal. You're asking me |
| 24 | | whether the captain is responsible for the vessel |
| 25 | | or the aircraft. In my opinion, yes, he is. |

Is this 4 something for me to read -- is that what you want,... 5 Α Yes. 6 THE COURT: ... your employer wanted me to read 7 this; is that correct? 8 Α Yes, that's correct. 9 (Pause) 10 THE COURT: According to this letter, your 11 employer is Russell Manuel, an MD? 12 Α That's correct. 13 THE COURT: And are you a nurse? 14 That's correct. Α 15 THE COURT: Are you a professional nurse? 16 I am an LPN. Α 17 THE COURT: Are there any other nurses that he 18 has? 19 Α No. 20 THE COURT: What happens when you are ill or 21 you take a vacation, what does he do in that event? 22 Well, in the two years I've been there, I Α 23 really haven't. 24 THE COURT: You've never taken a vacation or 25 been ill?

1 The only time I left there is for two weeks to Ά 2 do my drill, and then he has -- usually that's in 3 the summertime when the person that's there 4 part-time now can be there on a full-time basis, 5 and then he limits his practice to patients that 6 he sees. 7 THE COURT: Will you suffer any financial 8 hardship if you are given the opportunity to serve on 9 this jury? In other words will he cut your pay in any 10 way or reduce your pay? 11 Α I don't think he'll cut it. I think I won't 12 be getting one from him. 13 THE COURT: You won't get paid while you're 14 gone, is that what you are saying? 15 Right. Α 16 THE COURT: Is that going to create a 17 financial hardship if you were given an opportunity to 18 serve for six to eight weeks? 19 Α No, I don't think it would be a very -- you 20 know, a bad hardship, no. 21 THE COURT: What would you like to do? Ιf 22 given the opportunity would you like to serve on this 23 jury -- regardless of what your employer says would you 24 like to serve on the jury, given the opportunity? 25 Α I think it would be very interesting, yes,

1 'cause I've never done this before. My only 2 concern would be I might not have a job 3 afterwards. 4 THE COURT: Has your employer indicated to you 5 in any way that you might not have a job if you serve 6 on this jury? 7 No, but the type of practice that he does, I Α 8 doubt very seriously if he would go that period 9 of time without hiring somebody else in there 10 full-time. I not only do the nursing in his 11 office, I also do the business side too. 12 Well, I want to give you an THE COURT: 13 opportunity to serve on this jury if you want to and at 14 the same time though I don't want to create a situation 15 where your employer fires you because you're serving on 16 I don't think he would do that, frankly, jurv dutv. 17 but he might have to get somebody to replace you 18 because of his needs. 19 Right. Α 20 THE COURT: I'm going to let you make the call 21 on this. If you want to serve, then I'm going to let 22 you serve. You may not serve anyway, because we 23 haven't even started asking you questions. 24 Α Right. 25 And there's probably a chance you THE COURT:

| 15 | talked about, Mr. Swickle (ph), Mr. Decker and |
| 16 | Mr. Meyer, are they just patients that have come |
| 17 | in? |
| 18 | A Pretty much, yes. |
| 19 | Q Is there anything about your relationship with |
| 20 | them as patients that would affect your ability |
| 21 | to evaluate their testimony if they were called |
| 22 | to testify |
| 23 | A No. |
| 24 | Q Any other objectively? |

| 4 | А | Personal. |
| 5 | Q | And would it have to do a little bit with |

| 7 | | that you said that. |
| 8 | А | Yes, that didn't even stop me as a child or as |
| 9 | | a teenager, but it's just something that I've |
| 10 | | grown not to prefer. |
| 11 | Q | Do you hold it against people that do drink? |
| 12 | А | No. As far as this especially that |
| 13 | | situation, no. |
| 14 | Q | Have you been around people who have had too |
| 15 | | much to drink? |
| 16 | A | Yes. |
| 17 | Q | Would you agree with me that at some point |
| 18 | | everybody reaches a point where they've had too |
| 19 | | much to drink? |
| 20 | А | I would say if they reach a level, that |
| 21 | | everybody reaches a level? |
| 22 | Q | That they've had too much to drink. At some |
| 23 | | point everybody can have too much to drink. |
| 24 | А | There is right, I agree with that, if they |
| 25 | | continually drink. |

| 2 | A | Right. |

| 13 | A | No, that's that's total. I put that total |

| 15 | Q | Oh. |
| 16 | A | So, he's right gone now and he'll be back for |
| 17 | | about four days and then he's gone for another |

| 19 | Q | Where is he right now? |
| 20 | A | Right now he's just in the field out at Fort |

| 9 | Q | Which do you prefer more, the psychology or |

| 11 | A | The psychology. |
| 12 | Q | In this case the Judge will read you an |

The other Α 17 two, I just recognize the names as being patients 18 in our clinic, but, you know, that may be, like I 19 said, another person with the same name. 20 0 And if you saw that person or let's say all 21 three of them happen to take the witness stand 22 here and you say oh, yeah, that's the person, I 23 remember him now, it would just be from any 24 association in the clinic than anywhere else? 25 That's correct. | 7 | | to, would that concern you at all and say, gee, I |
| 8 | | might see that person again? You know, I wonder |
| 9 | | if you might |
| 10 | A | No. No, I don't think so. |
| 11 | Q | What exactly are your duties at the clinic; |
| 12 | | what do you do there? |
| 13 | A | Well, I manage the office itself. As far as |
| 14 | | payroll taxes, time schedules, setting up classes |
| 15 | | and conferences with Dr. Manuel, assisting hiring |
| 16 | | people. I also do the nursing end of things, his |
| 17 | | preventive medicine, I do counseling on health, I |
| 18 | | do acupuncture and counsel on supplements. |
| 19 | Q | Do you have a lot of frequent patient contact |
| 20 | | then, direct contact with them or you are more of |
| 21 | | a |
| 22 | A | No, the especially the one they're in |

| 1 | | ······ |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | А | That's right. |
| 2 | Q | Anchorage clinic? |
| 3 | A | That's right. |
| 4 | Q | Now, with regard to your personal non-use of |
| 5 | | alcohol, shall we say, you obviously have some |
| 6 | | experiences in your life that cause you to |
| 7 | | believe that alcohol could be destructive. Is |
| 8 | | that fair to say? |
| 9 | A | Yes. |
| 10 | Q | And I don't want to delve into that. Let me |
| 11 | | say right now, if there's anything I say or |
| 12 | | anybody else says that causes you or causes you |
| 13 | | to feel that you may be embarrassed or something, |
| 14 | | please just let me know and I'm sure the Judge |

| 17 | | unnecessarily pry into your, you know, personal |
| 18 | | affairs. |
| 19 | A | Okay. |
| 20 | Q | But, you know, sometimes people have some |
| 21 | | difficulty in putting aside experiences |
| 22 | | negative experiences they've had in their life |
| 23 | | that deal with alcohol. You mentioned, for |

| | A | Yes, I agree with that, but I think that, you |
| | | know, with my personal experiences, I've learned |
| | | that, you know, that's the past. |
| | Q | It's what? |
| | A | It's the past. And, you know, I've already |
| | | dealt with it. |
| | Q | And so you won't judge other people by what |
| | | may have happened in your life, |
| | A | No, uh-uh (negative). |
| | Q | in other words? So, you can say to |
| | | yourself, you tell us very clearly right now that |
| | | you choose not to consume alcohol at all, but the |
| | | fact that Captain Hazelwood, the evidence may |
| | | show that he did or did not use alcohol, but |
| | | assuming he did, you're not going to say, well, I |
| | | think I'm going to put a couple points against |
| | | him just for that reason? |
| | A | No. |
| | Q | Does your husband drink at all? |
| | A | Yes. |
| | Q | Now, the patients that you mentioned that were |
| | | affected because of the oil spill, was this |
| | | because of direct communication you had with them |

| 1 | | concerning it? |
|----|---|--|
| 2 | А | Yes. |
| 3 | Q | They expressed some negative feelings, I |
| 4 | | imagine, to you about what happened and how it |
| 5 | | affected them? |
| 6 | A | Right. |
| 7 | Q | They lost money, right? |
| 8 | A | Uh-huh (affirmative). |
| 9 | Q | If you were to serve as a juror, would this |
| 10 | | cause you any concern about maybe having to deal |
| 11 | | with these people later and worry about how a |
| 12 | | decision you might make will affect your |
| 13 | | relationship with them? |
| 14 | A | No. |
| 15 | Q | Did any of these people ever express any |
| 16 | | opinion to you about Captain Hazelwood and his |
| 17 | | fault, involvement or liability or anything like |
| 18 | | that? |
| 19 | A | Not really. |
| 20 | Q | On this topic you indicated, for instance, |
| 21 | | what you read well, one of the things you said |
| 22 | | was you heard about this in newspapers. Do you |
| 23 | | remember what newspaper? |
| 24 | A | Anchorage Daily News. |
| 25 | Q | You subscribe to that one? |

1 Yes, I do. Α 2 0 Did you read it regularly on what they said 3 about the spill? 4 Pretty much when I had time, 'cause the only Α 5 time I had to read it is in the morning time and 6 sometimes the paper boy doesn't get there when I 7 go to work. 8 Do you ever read the editorials? Q 9 Α No. 10 Any reason why you didn't read the editorials 0 11 that had to do with the oil spill? 12 Α If it's not on the front page, pretty much I 13 don't read it. I don't have the time. 14 0 That was it? 15 Α Well.... 16 If it was continued on page five you didn't Q 17 get that far? 18 Well, I continued to page five, but that's Α 19 about it. 20 And would you say the newspaper was your major 0 21 source of the information you got, or was it. 22 maybe TV or anything else? 23 I think I got -- I did a lot of -- of what I Α 24 heard was on CNN. | 18 | Your Honor. |
| 19 | THE COURT: Thank you, Ms. Perlo. You can |
| 20 | pick up your personal belongings in the juror room next |
| 21 | door where you were staying, if you have any. If y ou |
| 22 | don't, you can just go out the front way. I'd like to |
| 23 | have you come back to the jury assembly room Friday at |
| 24 | 8:30. That's where you met this morning? |
| 25 | A Yeah. |

| 1 | THE COURT: Downstairs, where you filled out |
| 2 | the questionnaires yesterday, the same location; |
| 3 | downstairs, Friday at 8:30. |
| 4 | A Okay. |
| 5 | THE COURT: Okay. We'll take a break until |
| 6 | about 1:15. We'll notify the prospective jurors next |
| 7 | door to be back at 1:15. You can do that, Dave. Just |
| 8 | notify them to come back to the jury room at 1:15. |
| 9 | Is there anything we need to take up before we |
| 10 | recess for lunch? |
| 11 | MR. COLE: Judge no, I don't have anything. |
| 12 | THE CLERK: Please rise. This court stands in |
| 13 | recess, subject to call. |
| 14 | (Off record - 11:50 a.m.) |
| 15 | (On record - 1:21 p.m.) |
| 16 | THE COURT:be seated. Mr. Madson, did you |
| 17 | want to take up something before we resume? |
| 18 | MR. MADSON: Yes, I do, Your Honor. With all |
| 19 | due respect, I want to renew an objection that was made |
| 20 | earlier, as far as one potential juror is concerned at |
| 21 | least. And that is with the Court's precluding us from |
| 22 | going into the relationship of the witness with other |
| 23 | people. In other words, there are two two of these |
| 24 | gentlemen were airplane pilots and expressed their |
| 25 | feeling about, you know, if they were charged, it's |

their responsibility, et cetera, et cetera, and I feel in both instances that we've been unnecessarily and unduly precluded from delving into that area a little bit more to determine whether or not, in spite of what they say about following the Court's instructions, whether they truly can do that when they have strong feelings about their personal responsibility and when and how and what circumstances it can be delegated. And that's the heart of this case, and without going into that a little bit more, I think it's extremely difficult to find out any real potential bias they may have.

THE COURT: Okay. I understand your concern. There may be other ways you can get to it. I've precluded specific questions that you were asking. That is, ones that suggested that if they could turn over and delegate authority in an airplane, the suggestion or the inference was maybe it's okay for Captain Hazelwood to have done the same thing. That was very suggestive of what the evidence may be.

I think you might be able to get to it by an inquiry of if the rules and regulations, the Court's instructions, differ in how a tanker captain's responsibility go compared to theirs, would they be able to set aside theirs and use the guidelines for

| 1 | this type of case. Now, that's not how your question |
| 2 | was phrased. Your question, as phrased, was very |
| 3 | suggestive. That's what I want to avoid; suggesting |
| 4 | what the evidence is going to be. I'm satisfied that |
| 5 | they demonstrated an unequivocal ability to follow the |
| 6 | Court's instructions this time, but I'll let you get |
| 7 | into it if you can do it in a non-suggestive way. |
| 8 | MR. MADSON: Well, the way the Court |
| 9 | suggested, I feel, is insufficient, Your Honor. That's |
| 10 | what I want to say. You are coming from one approach |
| 11 | and we're coming from another and maybe there is some |
| 12 | middle ground and maybe we can reach that point, but |
| 13 | right now, I think, well, we'll just give it another |
| 14 | try, but I do think we are entitled to get in there a |
| 15 | little bit more. |
| 16 | THE COURT: Okay. I understand what you're |
| 17 | going to do. If it becomes necessary, I will gently |
| 18 | interrupt you. I don't think it's necessary to bring |
| 19 | you to the bench each time. I did it so it would avoid |
| 20 | potential embarrassment to you. But if you are going |
| 21 | to persist in it, and it looks like you are persisting, |
| 22 | I will gently and politely interrupt you from where you |
| 23 | stand. |
| 24 | So far the jury selection is going along quite |
| 25 | smoothly. I am always keeping in the back of my mind |

1 the rule that allows me to impose reasonable time 2 restraints, but we're going along pretty smoothly now, 3 so considering that the jurors have answered 4 approximately 50 written questions and we're taking 5 about 15 minutes or about 10 minutes per side, that's 6 what it seems to be, about 10 minutes per side, that's 7 reasonable and I think we're moving right along. 8 So, if there's nothing else, we'll get the 9 next juror in here. 10 (4130)11 (Tape: C-3583) 12 (0076)13 MR. MADSON: I think Mr. Chalos wants to raise 14 something with regard to the juror he examined, Your 15 Honor. 16 MR. CHALOS: Yes, Your Honor, I would like to 17 articulate, for the record, the basis for my challenge 18 of Mr. Gerard. If you recall when I questioned him, 19 Mr. Gerard stated that he over flew the area of 20 approximately two to three days after the incident and 21 at that time he saw the spill -- he saw the center of 22 the spill as well as the attitude of the vessel, 23 meaning the rest in which the vessel was... 24 THE COURT: Sideways or something like that, I 25 think, is what he said.

| 1 | MR. CHALOS: Right. Those are issues that are |
|----|---|
| 2 | going to loom large in this particular case, especially |
| 3 | the attitude of the vessel to the land, and it's my |
| 4 | feeling that Mr. Gerard was in a position that's akin |
| 5 | to a juror going to the scene of a crime while the |
| 6 | victim is still lying there. And I felt that he should |
| 7 | have been challenged for cause as a witness, if you |
| 8 | will, to the accident itself. I believe at that time |
| 9 | when I made the challenge, and I still do now, that |
| 10 | because of that he can have some undue influence on the |
| 11 | rest of the jurors. He can describe for them what they |
| 12 | should be listening to in terms of the evidence rather |
| 13 | than what a juror himself has seen, and that was the |
| 14 | basis of my challenge. |
| 15 | THE COURT: All right. Your objection is |
| 16 | noted for the record. Let's bring the next juror in. |
| 17 | It will be Terrill Smith. |
| 18 | MR. COLE: Judge, do you have a copy of the |
| 19 | information for the misdemeanors? |
| 20 | THE COURT: Yes, I do. |
| 21 | MR. COLE: I just wondered if there was a |
| 22 | reason why you hadn't read the charges. |
| 23 | THE COURT: I think most people know what |
| 24 | driving while intoxicated or under the influence means. |
| 25 | I didn't find it necessary to read them specifically. |

1 I never did find the original of your amended 2 information. So, in the future, if you have documents 3 to file, the originals are generally going downstairs. 4 If you give me a courtesy copy right away, we won't 5 have to delay. 6 MR. COLE: I did. I'm sorry. 7 THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Smith. Just 8 have a seat in the front row there, next to that 9 microphone. You can take it off of the stand and can 10 you read those questions all right from your location? 11 Yes, sir. Α 12 THE COURT: Okay. Have you talked to him 17 about your jury service? 18 Α Yes, sir, I have. 19 THE COURT: And did he indicate to you he 20 would not pay you for jury service? 21 Α To be honest, Your Honor, he came to me 22 yesterday and he said that he would try to see 23 that I got reimbursed for the time I missed. It 24 is a family owned company and due to the economic 25 situation in the state right now pertaining to

In the past we had lost a lot of 5 benefits and whatever, due to the financial 6 crunch, but he did make an indication that he 7 would try to see that I got reimbursed. He would 8 have to discuss that with his wife, who is also 9 the company's controller or -- of the -- you know 10 for the funds for the company. 11 THE COURT: All right. If you did not have 12 your pay reduced because of this, if you were 13 reimbursed, then you would not be suffering 14 financially? 15 No, sir, I would not. Α 16 THE COURT: So, we don't know the answer to 17 that just yet, do we? 18 I've worked for Mr. Jones for about a year and Α 19 a half now, and in the past when he said he would 20 try to do something for me, he'd always follow 21 through on it and tried. So my inclination would 22 be, yes, he would come up with the funds to cover 23 it. But there was no guarantee. 24 THE COURT: Okay. I'm not going to excuse you 25 for a financial hardship at this time, and I may not in

I happen to know him, and tell 3 him that I'm not excusing you for a financial hardship 4 at this time. 5 I will, Your Honor. Α 6 THE COURT: And in the event that you are 7 given the opportunity to serve on the jury and your pay 8 is reduced, I would hope that you would not hold that 9 against any of the parties that are appearing before 10 Is that something that I can be assured of? you. 11 Α Rest assured, Your Honor, I would not. 12 THE COURT: Okay. And I would also hope that 13 it wouldn't speed up any deliberative process that you 14 might be involved in just so you can get back to work. 15 Is that something else I can be assured of? 16 Yes, sir, you may be assured of that too. Α 17 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks very much. 18 Mr. Cole. 19 MR. COLE: Thank you, Your Honor. 20 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION OF TERRILL LEE SMITH 21 BY MR. COLE: 22 Q Good afternoon, Mr. Smith. | 2 | | 1986. |
| 3 | Q | I'm sorry to hear that. You have how many |
| 4 | | kids now? |
| 5 | A | I have two children of my own and three |
| 6 | | step-children, all teenagers. |
| 7 | Q | Are they all living at home with you? |
| 8 | А | All except my oldest stepson, Bill, who is in |
| 9 | | his first year at UAF now. |
| 10 | Q | Up in Fairbanks? |
| 11 | А | Yes, sir. |
| 12 | Q | And is he living on campus there or off |
| 13 | | campus? |
| 14 | А | No, he's living on campus, sir. |
| 15 | Q | Have you lived any place else in the state |
| 16 | | besides Alaska? |
| 17 | А | Anywhere else in |
| 18 | Q | In Anchorage? |
| 19 | А | Oh, I'm sorry. I lived in Anchorage well, |
| 20 | | Eagle River until I remarried last year and we |
| 21 | | moved into Anchorage. |
| 22 | Q | I notice that you have served in the military |
| 23 | | back in '65 through '68? |
| 25 | Q | Were you drafted at that time? |
| | | |

| 1 | A | No, sir, I was a volunteer. |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | Q | And can you tell me what rank you reached? |
| 3 | A | My rank upon discharge, sir, was E-4. |
| 4 | Q | And what particular area were you involved in? |
| 5 | А | It was a classified job, but basically |
| 6 | | communications. |
| 7 | Q | Would it have involved say, for instance, |
| 8 | | radar? |
| 9 | А | No, sir. |
| 10 | Q | You listed in your have you ever been |
| 11 | | charged with a crime? |
| 12 | A | No, sir, I have not. |
| 13 | Q | At one point you listed in your questionnaire |
| 14 | | that you've been a victim of a crime. |
| 15 | A | Yes, sir, I have the many years ago, |
| 16 | | approximately 19 years ago, my house had been |
| 17 | | broken into and guns and household items of that |
| 18 | | nature had been taken. |
| 19 | Q | Were you at home when that happened? |
| 20 | A | No, sir, I was not. |
| 21 | Q | Did you anything about that, the |
| 22 | | circumstances involved in that that would have |
| 23 | | affected your ability to be fair and impartial in |
| 24 | | this case? |
| 25 | A | None whatsoever. |
| | 1 | |

| 1 | Q | Would you give me an idea of what you do in |
|----|---|--|
| 2 | | your spare time? |
| 3 | A | Oh, my spare time is spent mainly taking care |
| 4 | | of our children. Really, they teenagers are |
| 5 | | very demanding. |
| 6 | Q | Are they involved in athletics and |
| 7 | | extra-curricular activities at school? |
| 8 | A | My oldest stepson, sir, is attempting to get |
| 9 | | in on the ski team up at UAF. |
| 10 | Q | Cross country? |
| 11 | A | Yes, sir. |
| 12 | Q | Can you tell me a little bit about your job? |
| 13 | A | I'm a hardware manager with as I stated |
| 14 | | earlier, with Jones Tool Rental and Hardware in |
| 15 | | Eagle River. Basically, I deal not only with the |
| 16 | | public in retail sales, but I handle vendors, |
| 17 | | purchasing, outside sales, merchandising and the |
| 18 | | upkeep of the store in general. I also hire and |
| 19 | | fire employees. |
| 20 | Q | That was going to be my next question. Are |
| 21 | | you responsible for some of the employees that |
| 22 | | work there? |
| 23 | A | Yes, sir, I am. |
| 24 | Q | Do you know anything about the maritime |
| 25 | | shipping industry? |
| | | |

| 1 | А | Very little, sir. |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | Q | Do you have any close friends or relatives |
| 3 | | that work in that area? |
| 4 | А | None, sir. |
| 5 | Q | And have you what job did you hold before |
| 6 | | you went to work for Jones? |
| 7 | A | Well, I was also in the same line of work when |
| 8 | | I worked for United Building Supply, here in |
| 9 | | Anchorage. |
| 10 | Q | Can you on a scale of one to 10, one being |
| 11 | | a light drinker and 10 being a heavy drinker, |
| 12 | | where would you place yourself on that scale? |
| 13 | A | Probably a maximum of two. |
| 14 | Q | Do you have any strong feelings about people |
| 15 | | that drink, favorably or unfavorably? |
| 16 | A | I really never gave it that much thought, so |
| 17 | | I'd have to say my feelings were fairly light on |
| 18 | | the subject. |
| 19 | Q | Do you have any special training about the |
| 20 | | physiological or psychological effects of alcohol |
| 21 | | on the body? |
| 22 | A | Nothing special, sir. |
| 23 | Q | Does your job allow you to drink when you are |
| 24 | | at work? |
| 25 | A | Absolutely not. |

| 1 | Q | And what about at lunch; do you drink at lunch |

| 2 | | at all? |
| 3 | A | No, sir, I do not. |
| 4 | Q | Do you get any journals or magazines for |
| 5 | A | I receive the National Geographic and Business |
| 6 | | Weekly. |
| 7 | Q | Do you have any do you watch TV at all? |
| 8 | А | I do on occasion. |
| 9 | Q | Anything that's a favorite show of yours that |
| 10 | | you watch with regularity? |
| 11 | A | Oh, I like I'm kind of partial to the Cosby |
| 12 | | Show and I will watch any of the National |
| 13 | | Geographic specials that come on PBS or any of |
| 14 | | those, and a few other select shows, but I don't |
| 15 | | usually have a lot of time for TV. |
| 16 | Q | I was interested by your answer of why you |
| 17 | | originally came to Alaska. You wrote down new |
| 18 | | lifestyle. Were you unhappy with where you were |
| 19 | | or you just wanted a change? |
| 20 | A | None whatsoever, sir. I'm, quite honestly, |
| 21 | | still in love with the country I came from It's |
| 22 | | always been a little spirit of adventure of mine |
| 23 | | and I came up here I'd never been here before |
| 24 | | I did come up to see what it was like. My |
| 25 | | family homesteaded where I came from, and I'm |
| | 1 | |

| 1 | | quite proud of that fact also. And I was |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | impressed by what I saw here and I liked it and |
| 3 | | basically that's what it meant, was starting a |
| 4 | | new life up here. I did not leave I left a |
| 5 | | job I had there and everything to come up here. |
| 6 | Q | Was that in Denver? |
| 7 | А | Yes, sir. |
| 8 | Q | Now, some of the have you read any accounts |
| 9 | | or been exposed to any of the publicity that this |
| 10 | | case had raised? |
| 11 | А | Of course. |
| 12 | Q | Have you formed any opinions about the roles |
| 13 | | and responsibilities of any of the parties that |
| 14 | | were involved? And when I say parties I mean any |
| 15 | | of the crew members or the Coast Guard or the |
| 16 | | Department of Environmental Conservation or Exxon |
| 17 | | or Alyeska. |
| 18 | А | In my basic opinion on that well, actually |
| 19 | | the only opinion I have was, of course, that |
| 20 | | after the accident itself, that it needed to be |
| 21 | | cleaned up, of course, it couldn't be just left |
| 22 | | there. And really, over and above beyond that |
| 23 | | it would have been difficult for me to form an |
| 24 | | opinion of who should or shouldn't. I would have |
| 25 | | to assume that the company itself would have |

1 taken charge of that initially. 2 0 Your biggest opinion was that it should be 3 cleaned up, and you haven't reached any opinions 4 on whether that was done properly or improperly 5 or anything? 6 No, sir, I haven't, really. Α 7 0 And your role, as the Judge explained it 8 earlier, was going to be -- you're going to be 9 the finders of facts in this case. You're going 10 to listen to the evidence that's presented to the 11 witnesses and the exhibits that are admitted into 12 evidence and you are going to be the one to 13 determine what the facts are that occurred during 14 the evenings of March 23rd and March 24th. The 15 Judge will instruct you on the law. Do you have 16 any problems with that role? 17 None whatsoever, sir. Α 18 0 Do you feel comfortable that you can follow 19 the Judge's instructions that he will give you? 20 Α I do. 21 And one concern for both Captain Hazelwood and 0 22 the state of Alaska is that you feel comfortable 23 with your decision not to base your verdict, if 24 you're called upon to reach a verdict on any 25 outside information, but solely on the testimony,

1 the evidence and your own common sense and good 2 judgment. 3 That's correct. Α 4 Does that seem like a fair way to handle 0 5 things to you? 6 In my personal belief, that's the only way you Α 7 can do it. I quite strongly believe in that. 8 I assume then you understand the importance of 0 9 this case, both to Captain Hazelwood and to the 10 state of Alaska? 11 Yes, sir, I do. Α 12 And will you be willing to, if called upon to 0 13 reach a decision in this case, base it on the 14 evidence that's admitted and that you hear and 15 your own common sense and good judgment in 16 reaching a fair and honest verdict? 17 Yes, sir, I could. Α 18 MR. COLE: Judge, I have no further questions 19 and would pass for cause. Thank you. 20 THE COURT: Mr. Chalos. 21 VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION OF TERRILL LEE SMITH 22 BY MR. 1 Mrs. Jones, your employer? 2 Α This particular case, since I've received my 3 jury summons, no, I have not. 4 How about prior to receiving your jury Q 5 summons? 6 I had, at the time of this unfortunate Α 7 accident, like many other folks had, discussed it 8 to a small extent, yes. 9 Did you bring it up or did they bring it up? Q 10 Beg your pardon? Α 11 Who initiated the conversation? 0 12 Since I received my jury instructions? Α 13 No, prior to that. 0 14 Α Oh, it was the topic of general conversation, 15 basically. It would be hard to say if I brought 16 it up or somebody else had. I would say more 17 than likely I may have in some cases and other 18 folks may have in others. 19 Did you express an opinion at that time with Q 20 respect to the spill? 21 Only as I stated, that hopefully somebody. Α 22 would get it cleaned up, yes. 23 Did Mr. or Mrs. Jones, to the best of your Q 24 recollection, express an opinion? 25 Α No, sir.

| 1 | Q Did Mr. or Mrs. Jones ever tell you that they |
|----|---|
| 2 | knew Judge Johnstone? |
| 3 | |
| 4 | |
| 5 | Mr. Jones stated that he knew Mr. Johnstone |
| 6 | yesterday. To what capacity, I don't know. |
| | THE COURT: For your information, Counsel, he |
| 7 | was on a jury that I presided over, some years ago, I |
| 8 | think, in addition to having known him as a resident of |
| 9 | Eagle River when I used to live there. |
| 10 | MR. CHALOS: Oh. |
| 11 | Q Did Mr. Jones express any opinion to you |
| 12 | regarding Captain Hazelwood's role in this spill? |
| 13 | A Well, I have not mentioned to Mr. Jones what |
| 14 | case I was on as per instructions, so he doesn't |
| 15 | know which jury I'm standing on. |
| 16 | Q Have you discussed the spill with any of your |
| 17 | co-workers since its occurrence? |
| 18 | A It had come up in discussion quite naturally |
| 19 | because of the line of work we were in and the |
| 20 | fact that Veco, I believe, was handling the |
| 21 | clean-up work or rather we might be able to make |
| 22 | some sales to them on equipment or supplies or |
| 23 | something of that nature. And as it turns out, |
| 24 | we virtually received nothing out of it. |

| 4 | | Jones and some other gentlemen with Northern |
| 5 | | Industrial Products. As to rather they actually |
| 6 | | received any or not, I don't know. |
| 7 | Q | Has Mr. Jones expressed any unhappiness to you |
| 8 | | over the fact that Veco hasn't bought any |
| 9 | | equipment from him? |
| 10 | A | None whatsoever. |
| 11 | Q | You mentioned that you know a little bit about |
| 12 | | the maritime business. What do you know in |
| 13 | | that |
| 14 | A | No, sir, I stated I knew very little about it. |
| 15 | Q | Okay. What do you know that's even very |
| 16 | | little about it, or are you saying that you don't |
| 17 | | know anything? |
| 18 | A | Well, I was born and raised 1,000 miles from |
| 19 | | it, sir. Until I moved to Alaska, I hadn't |
| 20 | | hardly even seen an ocean. To be honest, I have |
| 21 | | been out on a small pleasure craft and that sort |
| 22 | | of thing, but my knowledge of maritime commerce |
| 23 | | is quite limited, sir. |
| 24 | Q | Do you fish? |
| 25 | A | No, sir, other than as a hobby, sporting. |

|----|---|--|
| 1 | Q | Have you ever been out on Prince William |

| 3 | A | Yes, sir, I have. |
| 4 | Q | How many times? |
| 5 | А | Once. |
| 6 | Q | How long ago was that? |
| 7 | А | 1983, I believe. |
| 8 | Q | Was that for fishing or just touring? |
| 9 | А | Fishing and we had a four-day weekend out |
| 10 | | there. We were doing some shrimping, camping on |
| 11 | | one of the islands back there and just generally |
| 12 | | spending as it turned out, I got pneumonia at |
| 13 | | the time, so it was a terrible four-day weekend. |
| 14 | Q | Well, I'm sure there are other people in this |
| 15 | | room that feel the same way. Let me ask you |
| 16 | | this. You mentioned that you read National |
| 17 | | Geographic. |
| 18 | A | Yes, sir, I do. |
| 19 | Q | Did you see the November or October issue of |
| 20 | | last year regarding the oil spill? |
| 21 | A | Yes, sir, I did. |
| 22 | Q | Did you read the copy that accompanied the |
| 23 | | story? |
| 24 | A | I'm sorry, the? |
| 25 | Q | The copy, the written story that went with the |

Ιαο 4 pretty much cover to cover on that magazine 5 because I enjoy it so much. 6 I agree with you. I do the same thing. Q When 7 you read the copy did you read the writer's 8 account of the events that transpired on the 9 night of the grounding? 10 That part, if I did, I do not --Α No, sir. 11 well, I may have, but I do not remember it. 12 Now, with respect to the -- you saw the Q 13 pictures, I take it, in the... 14 Α Yes, sir, of course. 15 Did you have a feeling or any opinions after Q 16 looking at the pictures? 17 No, sir, I really didn't. Α 18 Did they affect you in any way? Q 19 No, sir. Α 20 Do you believe on the basis of that article Q 21 that the spill is being cleaned up partially by 22 man and partially by nature? 23 Yes, sir, I do. Α 24 Do you have any opinion as to Exxon's role in 0 25 the spill itself?

| 2 | I felt that being an initiator, be it |

| 4 | indeed they did have a role, yes. |
| 5 | Q Do you have an opinion as to whether they |
| 6 | fulfilled any obligation that they may have with |
| 7 | respect to the spill? |
| 8 | A I think, for the most part, they've done a |
| 9 | relatively decent job, yes, sir. |
| 10 | Q Do you have an opinion or any feeling with |
| 11 | respect to Exxon's treatment of |
| 12 | Captain Hazelwood? |
| 13 | MR. COLE: You know, Judge, I'm going to |
| 14 | object. |
| 15 | THE COURT: Objection sustained. Next |
| 16 | question, please. |
| 17 | Q Now, besides National Geographic, I think you |
| 18 | said you read Business Week? |
| 19 | A Yes, sir. |
| 20 | Q Have you read anything in Business Week |
| 21 | relating to this spill and the subsequent |
| 22 | cleanup? |
| 23 | A Not in that particular magazine, sir. |
| 24 | Q Do you read any newspapers, local newspapers? |
| 25 | A Yes, sir, I do. |

1 Which ones? Q 2 Α The Anchorage Daily News. (Clears throat) 3 The Anchorage Daily News, usually. Excuse me. 4 Did you read the Daily News since the 0 5 beginning of this incident? 6 No, sir. Since the spill? Α 7 Yes. 0 8 Yes, sir, I have a couple times. Α 9 Just a couple times? Q 10 Yes, sir. I don't have a whole lot of time in Α 11 the mornings to grab the paper, and what I'll do, 12 if I'll get to work a few minutes early, I'll 13 look it over before I open the store up, but it's 14 kind of a cursory fill-in on the news for the 15 day. 16 Do you read the editorials? Q 17 On occasion. Α 18 Have you read the Daily News, let's say in the 0 19 last week? 20 In the last week, no, sir, I have not. Α 21 Tell me, generally, what do you recall about Q 22 the report of the spill from your reading of the 23 Daily News? 24 The original reports back at the time? Α 25 Q Yes.

1 I can recall that they stated that there had Α 2 been a spill in Prince William Sound with an 3 Exxon Tanker, Exxon Valdez, of course, and gave 4 preliminary figures on gallonage and what they 5 thought the original -- preliminary reports said 6 happened, et cetera, et cetera. 7 I have to be really honest with you, the 8 newspaper reports, when they initially come out, 9 such as an example, the invasion of Panama, et 10 cetera, et cetera, are based solely on the 11 information they receive at that time, and that 12 can be sketchy. 13 0 Do you believe everything you read in the 14 newspaper; do you think newspapers report 15 everything accurately? 16 Ά No, sir. Based upon the assumption that, of 17 course, newspapers have a deadline to meet, they 18 have news to put out, and I'm not saying that 19 they do not report fairly or honestly, but I'm 20 saying they can only report what they have at 21 that time. So you -- I don't necessarily -- I'm 22 saying you can't necessarily believe what you 23 read in the paper, no. 24 Q Now, in the course of events since the spill

1 again about the spill and some of the facts that 2 emanated from the spill. Am I correct? 3 That's correct, sir. Α 4 Do you recall reading anything about the 0 5 possibility that Captain Hazelwood had been 6 drinking prior to the accident? 7 Α I was aware of that, yes, sir. 8 Have you formed any opinion in that respect? Q 9 No, sir, I have not. Α 10 Did you also read that he might have left a 0 11 mate on watch that was not gualified? 12 That's my understanding, sir. Α 13 Have you formed any opinion in that regard? 0 14 Α Here again, no, I have not, sir. 15 Do you feel fairly confident that if the Q 16 evidence that's presented at trial is contrary to 17 what you've read previously that you'd be able to 18 set aside any preconceived notions and judge this 19 case fairly? 20 Yes, sir, I could. Α 21 I see from your questionnaire that your 0 22 present wife is a nurse. 23 That's correct, sir. Α 24 An orthopedic nurse? Q 25 Α Yes, sir. Well, LPN for an orthopedic

1 surgeon. 2 What does she do in that regard? Q 3 Α Well, she handles the intake of the patients, 4 the preliminary examinations, the charts for the 5 patients, things of that nature, and it is in a 6 private practice office. 7 Q Does she work with any patients suffering from 8 drug or alcohol abuse? 9 Α No, sir, not unless they're related to what 10 Dr. Newman -- Michael Newman, her boss, 11 specializes in, and that's virtually zero. It's 12 spinal replacement, total joint replacements is 13 solely what he does. 14 Q May I ask you what your first wife did for a 15 living? 16 Α Yes, sir. She was a Early Learning program 17 teacher at Chugach Children's Services. 18 She worked with disabled children? 0 19 Α No, no, pre-schoolers. 20 I see. In your questionnaire you mention that Q 21 you drink rarely. What specifically do you mean? 22 Ά Well, sir, when I do drink, like I say, we 23 have, my wife, my present wife and I, we have 24 five teenagers between us and they're demanding 25 of a lot of our time. We will get out

That's our cardinal 6 rule between the two of us. 7 You always have a designated driver? 0 8 Α Yes, sir, we do. 9 Q Have you ever been in the situation where 10 you've designated your wife as driver and you 11 either sat in the passenger seat or in the back? 12 Α There's times -- well, this is usually agreed 13 upon if we go anywhere to start with. We will 14 discuss it and if she feels like having a drink 15 or two that night, then I will not drink and I 16 will do the driving, and vice versa. 17 If you'd just give me a minute, I'll go Q 18 through my notes and we can end this inquiry. 19 Α Yes, sir. 20 Aside from the Daily News did you read any 0 21 other local newspapers with respect to the spill? 22 There may have been -- well, no, I'm sorry, Α 23 I'll rephrase that. There has been one or two 24 articles in the local Eagle River/Chugiak Star on 25 that, and I've read those articles, yes. We sell

| 1 | that paper off our counter. |
| 2 | Q Was there anything in there that caused you to |
| 3 | form an opinion as to the cause of the grounding |
| 4 | and the spill? |
| 5 | A None whatsoever. Their articles really didn't |
| 6 | verse that much on it. The articles, I can tell |
| 7 | you, mainly stated the fact that what the |
| 8 | spill might involve with the economy of the |
| 9 | Eagle River/Chugiak area, but not really anything |
| 10 | specifically on the spill itself as far as |
| 11 | factual information. |
| 12 | Q Do you have opinions as to whether a captain |
| 13 | of a ship should be held criminally responsible |
| 14 | for the actions of his crew? |
| 15 | MR. COLE: Your Honor, I object to that. |
| 16 | MR. CHALOS: Your Honor, that's one of the |
| 17 | questions that you permitted, as far as I understand. |
| 18 | When you prohibited us from asking certain questions, |
| 19 | that was not one of them. |
| 20 | THE COURT: Well, I'm going to let the |
| 21 | question this time, but I'm going to follow-up. Do you |
| 22 - | have an opinion at this time? |
| 23 | A My opinion, sir, of anybody in responsibility, |
| 24 | and I may be broad or vague slightly on this is |
| 25 | as I am also responsible for employees of my |

| 1 | action, I would think Captain Hazelwood has a |
|----|--|
| 2 | responsibility. I'm not saying again that he's |
| 3 | guilty of anything, but he does have the |
| 4 | responsibility as the master of his ship. |
| 5 | THE COURT: Mr. Smith, regardless of what your |
| 6 | opinion is, if the Court's instructions differ from |
| 7 | your opinion concerning responsibility, would you be |
| 8 | able to set aside that opinion |
| 9 | A Indeed I would, sir. |
| 10 | THE COURT:and follow the instructions? |
| 11 | A Yes, sir, I could. |
| 12 | THE COURT: Okay. |
| 13 | Q Do you disapprove of someone drinking? |
| 14 | A No, sir, I do not. |
| 15 | Q Just one question I forgot to ask you earlier. |
| 16 | Do you ever watch late night shows like the |
| 17 | Tonite Show, Arsenio Hall, Pat Sajak? |
| 18 | A No, sir, I do not. |
| 19 | Q Have you heard any of the jokes that have been |
| 20 | going around about the spill and |
| 21 | Captain Hazelwood? |
| 22 | A In the case of not heard any jokes but I've |
| 23 | seen some of the merchandise that's come out like |
| 24 | in the malls and things like that. It's a little |
| 25 | hard to avoid, yes. |

| 1 | Q | What type of merchandise have you seen? |
|----|---|--|
| 2 | A | There was a T-shirt, I believe, if I remember |
| 3 | | correctly, in |
| 4 | Q | The tanker from hell T-shirt? |
| 5 | A | No, sir, I think it had something to do with |
| 6 | | something to do with a party in the captain's |
| 7 | | cabin or something, but I didn't you know, |
| 8 | | it's something I seen in passing. |
| 9 | Q | I take it you don't own any of that sort of |
| 10 | | souvenir memorabilia? |
| 11 | А | No, sir, I do not. |
| 12 | Q | How about any of your children? |
| 13 | А | No, sir, they do not. |
| 14 | Q | Have any of your children expressed an opinion |
| 15 | | to you with respect to this spill? |
| 16 | А | None whatsoever. |
| 17 | Q | Do you have let me go back. As best as you |
| 18 | | know, are you a plaintiff in any civil suit |
| 19 | | arising out of this oil spill? |
| 20 | A | Absolutely not. |
| 21 | Q | When you were in the Army did you serve in |
| 22 | | Vietnam? |
| 23 | А | Yes, sir, I did. |
| 24 | Q | Have you been in combat? |

1 0 Do you have any friends who are in the Coast 2 Guard? 3 Α No, sir, I do not. 4 Q Do you believe that a police officer or state 5 investigator can make a mistake in their job just 6 like any other person? 7 Yes, sir, that's quite true. Α 8 0 Would you tend to give more weight if you were 9 a sitting juror or importance to the testimony of 10 a Coast Guard person or a police officer just 11 because they are law enforcement people? 12 Α No, sir. 13 MR. CHALOS: Mr. Smith, I have no further 14 questions. Thanks for your time. 15 Α Thank you, sir. 16 MR. CHALOS: Your Honor, we pass. 17 THE COURT: You are free to go, but you'll 18 have to come back on Friday morning to the jury 19 assembly room. That's where you met this morning. Ι 20 think yesterday also, if you were here yesterday. So 21 you've got to be there at 8:30 a.m. next Friday. Is 22 there going to be any problem with that? 23 No, sir, it would not. Α 24 THE COURT: Okay. 25 Oh, Your Honor, I might make one thing known. Α

1 I did have, prior to coming down here for jury 2 duty, I did have surgery scheduled on my foot for 3 Friday. I can possibly get a change. Would 4 there be a problem there? 5 THE COURT: What time is it Friday? 6 Α I think at 1:00 o'clock in the afternoon. Ι 7 can reschedule the surgery, if need be. It's 8 nothing critical. 9 THE COURT: Could you reschedule for Thursday? 10 Yeah, it's -- the VA's paying on that so I Α 11 have to go down there and get it cancelled and 12 re-authorized, sir, but I can get it rescheduled. 13 THE COURT: Why don't you try to do that. Ι 14 don't -- probably we're not going to start this on 15 Friday, just the way things are going, but I can't 16 guarantee that. And if we have a jury by then and 17 you're on the jury, I want to start promptly. So if 18 you can reschedule that, okay. If you can't, would you 19 let me know? 20 Yes, sir, I will. Α 21 THE COURT: We'll work something out. 22 Α Yes, sir. 23 THE COURT: Okay. Thanks a lot. You can 24 collect your personal belongings in the other room and 25 see you in the jury room on Friday morning at 8:30,

| 11 | A | Yeah, I've read quite a bit about it. |

| 11 | Q | You appear to have some unhappy feelings |
| 12 | | toward the oil companies. |
| 13 | A | Well, I don't think they did a very good job |
| 14 | | in this instance. |
| 15 | Q | And then when you say a "good job" are you |
| 16 | | referring to the cleanup or in monitoring the |

| 12 | А | Yeah, we just drive down and come back. |
| 13 | Q | Does your job allow you to drink during |
| 14 | | working? |
| 15 | А | No. None whatsoever. |
| 16 | Q | Do you ever have any drinks at lunchtime? |
| 17 | A | No. |
| 18 | Q | Have you ever worked in a place where there |
| 19 | | was a mandatory drug or alcohol testing program? |
| 20 | А | No, they're just starting to instigate that. |
| 21 | | There are starting to be rumors, but not yet |
| 22 | | though. |
| 23 | Q | Do you have any strong feelings either in |
| 24 | | favor of that or against it? |
| 25 | A | Well, I operate heavy equipment and you cannot |
| | | |

| r | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | | be drinking and running that stuff. I mean |
| 2 | | there's just too many lives at stake with that. |
| 3 | Q | Do you have any specialized knowledge have |
| 4 | | you ever taken any classes, taken any seminars or |
| 5 | | anything about the effects of alcohol on the |
| 6 | | body? |
| 7 | A | We had a group come I think it was Mothers |
| 8 | | MADD, and they had a little speech they put on |
| 9 | | for us. |
| 10 | Q | Do you have any strong opinions about drinking |
| 11 | | and driving that would affect your ability to be |
| 12 | | fair and impartial here? |
| 13 | A | Well, as I said, you can't operate this I |
| 14 | | think you should be responsible for your actions |
| 15 | | at all times or either you should not you |
| 16 | | shouldn't be in it. |
| 17 | Q | Have you ever seen a radar? |
| 18 | A | What do you mean? A radar scope? |
| 19 | Q | A radar screen? |
| 20 | A | Just on a plane. |
| 21 | Q | Do you get a sense of the importance of this |
| 22 | | case both to Captain Hazelwood and the state of |
| 23 | | Alaska? |
| 24 | A | Yes, I there's quite a bit of importancy. |
| 25 | Q | And do you understand our concern that if |
| | | |

| 1 | | you're chosen to deliberate in this case, that we |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | that you will be asked to base your decision |
| 3 | | on the evidence that you hear through the |
| 4 | | witnesses and the evidence that's admitted by the |
| 5 | | judge and your own common sense and good |
| 6 | | judgment, and not on other things that are |
| 7 | | outside this courtroom. |
| 8 | A | Yes, I understand that. |
| 9 | Q | Do you understand the importance of that? |
| 10 | A | Uh-huh (affirmative). |
| 11 | Q | Would you be willing to follow that |
| 12 | | instruction and reach a fair and honest verdict |
| 13 | | in this case? |
| 14 | A | This one would be tough. |
| 15 | Q | Why do you say that? |
| 16 | А | Because I'm a native born Alaskan, because |
| 17 | | there's been a lot of damage and it would be, you |
| 18 | | know, because of the media and everything, this |
| 19 | | one would be a hard one for me. I |
| 20 | Q | I guess you can understand Mr. Hazelwood has a |
| 21 | | real interest in this thing |
| 22 | A | Well, I'm certain he does. |
| 23 | Q | I'm sure that he and I would like to know if |
| 24 | | you don't feel that you could be fair. We should |
| 25 | ł | |

| 1 | A Well, I this one would be a tough one for |

| 2 | me because of there's been a lot of damage |
| 3 | done. |
| 4 | Q And you've lived up here all your life? |
| 5 | A Uh-huh (affirmative). |
| 6 | THE COURT: When you say it would be a tough |
| 7 | one for you, |
| 8 | A It would be |
| 9 | THE COURT:would you be saying |
| 10 | Ahard enough for me to get emotionally |
| 11 | involved in this one in this case. |
| 12 | THE COURT: Well, then you know, as Captain |
| 13 | Hazelwood's stand has some disadvantage to begin with |
| 14 | here because of what you've read and what you know |
| 15 | about this case so far? |
| 16 | A I'd have to say yes. |
| 17 | THE COURT: So you've formed some opinion |
| 18 | concerning Captain Hazelwood at this time? |
| 19 | A Yes, I have. |
| 20 | THE COURT: And is it fair to say, based on |
| 21 | what you've said, that it will be something you might |
| 22 | not be able to set aside and assure us unequivocally |
| 23 | you can set aside? |
| 24 | A It would be difficult. |
| 25 | THE COURT: Any objection to excusing Mr. |

. . Brown? MR. MADSON: None, Your Honor. MR. COLE: Given his background, we have none. THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Brown, you are excused from further service in this case. Take your jury service card, Mr. Purden will give to you now, down to the jury clerk for further instructions. Do you have any more personal belongings in the jury room next door? You can just exit out the double doors here then after you pick up your jury card. And if you'd get the next juror, Mr. Gill. (Pause) I can recommend to counsel, if you'd get right to the publicity and media attention these jurors have been exposed to and find out the impact on them first, we might be able to save some time. MR. COLE: Yes, Your Honor. THE COURT: Good afternoon, Mr. Gill. Have a seat in the front row there next to that microphone. Take it off the hook and if you can read the questions on the board, would you please answer them? My name is Russell A. Gill. What Α organizations, Elks Club. That's really about

1 Do I have any reasons? I was asked yesterday, 2 after I went back to work, after I was released from 3 here, from my boss to ask if I would give this to you, 4 Your Honor. 5 THE COURT: Okay. You're not the first one. 6 Α It's the -- something that just happened 7 yesterday. It's pretty controlling. 8 Let me take a look at that before THE COURT: 9 you go any further. 10 (Pause) 11 Okay. Your employer is Cameron Iron Works, 12 USA Incorporated. Is that correct? 13 Α Yes, sir. 14 THE COURT: And Mr. Henderson is your 15 warehouse supervisor? 16 Α Yes. 17 THE COURT: Okay. And you are a warehouseman? 18 Repairman, warehouseman. We rebuild wellheads Α 19 for all the different oil companies. It's been 20 real critical of late. 21 THE COURT: If you are given the opportunity 22 to serve on this jury are you going to -- do you know 23 whether Cameron is going to penalize you by not paying 24 you? 25 I have served on other juries. I have never Α H & M COURT REPORTING • 510 L Street • Suite 350 • Anchorage, Alaska 99501 • (907) 274-5661

1 been paid for them. 2 THE COURT: With Cameron as your employer? 3 I've never been paid by any of my Α No. 4 previous employers. 5 THE COURT: Do you know whether Cameron is 6 going to pay you? 7 Α No, they won't, sir. 8 THE COURT: Is this a union job? Are you in a 9 union member? 10 No, sir. Α 11 THE COURT: Well, I recognize that there's 12 going to be some degree of financial hardship, but 13 that's not what you -- this letter seems to say. It 14 seems to say that there's going to be some problem in 15 the warehouse that you won't able to accommodate a 16 $400,000.00 backlog of material. Is that right? 17 Yes, about a quarter of that has to be done by Ά 18 this Friday. There's only two of us who can do 19 it. 20 THE COURT: And how long will that take? 21 Usually it takes us about two weeks to rebuild Α 22 one. 23 THE COURT: So it has to be completed by 24 Friday? 25 Α Yes. We just started yesterday. I have

| 1 | personal reasons. |
|----|--|
| 2 | THE COURT: Let's hear the personal reasons, |
| 3 | because this is not adequate. So let's see what your |
| 4 | personal reasons are. |
| 5 | A I do not he came to me. |
| 6 | THE COURT: Sure. |
| 7 | A When I first showed up for work he said, "Can |
| 8 | you submit this?" |
| 9 | THE COURT: Okay. Why don't you give me your |
| 10 | personal reasons? |
| 11 | A I've served on other jury panels, civil and |
| 12 | criminal, as my questionnaire points out. I've |
| 13 | always considered it a responsibility. For the |
| 14 | last three and a half years I have not taken a |
| 15 | day off from work, even when I switched jobs I |
| 16 | went from one to the other. I cannot afford it. |
| 17 | When this came up in November when I got |
| 18 | notification, I told them about it. They said, |
| 19 | well, go do it. I said good, because I consider |
| 20 | it a duty to do this. But talking to my wife and |
| 21 | stuff, five days is quite a strain. But if I get |
| 22 | on this panel or on this jury for a month or two |
| 23 | months, my land payments I've got a daughter |
| 24 | that's headed for medical school and another one |
| 25 | going to college this fall, 400 pounds worth of |

1 twin boys at home. You know, my wife works, but 2 she just doesn't make much. We cannot survive. 3 It's really a strain. 4 I would like to serve on a shorter jury at a 5 different time, just about any... 6 THE COURT: How many other juries have you 7 served on in the last few years? 8 Last time I was -- I was on a panel was Α 9 approximately in '83. 10 THE COURT: Last time was '83? 11 Uh-huh (affirmative). Α 12 THE COURT: Would you be willing to serve on a 13 shorter jury panel? 14 Α I certainly would. 15 THE COURT: Okay. I'm going to excuse you 16 because of the financial hardship that you've 17 indicated, and since you've said you'd be willing to 18 serve on a shorter panel, we'll call down and call you 19 back in sometime in the future. 20 Α I go down to... 21 THE COURT: Just take ... 22 ... the jury clerk? Α 23 THE COURT: ... your jury service card from 24 Take it down to the jury clerk for further Mr. Purden. 25 instructions. Do you have any personal belongings in

1 the room next door? 2 Α Just a jacket. 3 THE COURT: You can go back through that way 4 and then exit out the double doors and take it 5 downstairs. 6 Mr. Sherwood will be next, or Mrs. I'm not 7 sure if Sidney is a man or woman. 8 (Pause) 9 Good afternoon, Mr. Sherwood. Please have a 10 seat in the front row, next to the microphone. And 11 take the microphone off and you can answer those first 12 four questions. 13 Α Is it working? 14 THE COURT: It's working. 15 Α My name is Sid Sherwood. I'm having problems 16 reading the second question. 17 THE COURT: The second question is, "What 18 organizations are you a member of?" 19 Α A few gun dog clubs and no other 20 organizations. 21 THE COURT: The next question, "Are there any 22 reasons you should not serve on this jury?" 23 Α Yes, there is. My business and -- and dog 24 kennel operation, all is really suffering from me 25 not being there at all times.

1 THE COURT: Any other reasons other than that, 2 sir? 3 None that I can really think of at the time. Α 4 THE COURT: Okay. We'll get to that in just a 5 second. Do you know any of the defendants, -- do you 6 know the defendant, the attorneys who are here today or 7 the witnesses? 8 No. Α 9 Okay. You read through that list THE COURT: 10 of witnesses and you didn't recognize any names. Is 11 that correct? 12 Α Yes, I read that list. I knew none of those 13 people. 14 THE COURT: Okay. What is your business, 15 Mr. Sherwood? 16 Α I run a dog kennel and a dog training 17 operation for gun dogs, and I have 14, 15 dogs 18 there at my place all the time and the people are 19 paying me to train these dogs and, of course, if 20 I got into a lengthy situation now being on jury, 21 I'd have to see if I couldn't get all these . 22 people to take those dogs home, which would be 23 kind of disastrous for my business. 24 If you were to be sick or take a THE COURT: 25 vacation, what do you do about your dogs?

| 1 | A Actually, in the last six or seven years I |
|----|---|
| 2 | haven't had a vacation or been sick, so |
| 3 | THE COURT: I was afraid you'd say that. |
| 4 | AI can't answer that question. |
| 5 | THE COURT: Later on in the trial, if you are |
| 6 | selected, we'll probably be going half days, probably |
| 7 | starting about week three or four, after the jury is |
| 8 | selected, probably about week three. We'll go from |
| 9 | 8:30 till 1:30. Would you be able to accommodate your |
| 10 | training needs and your business needs if we were to |
| 11 | let you go at 1:30 during those days? |
| 12 | A Well, it would certainly be awfully |
| 13 | inconvenient and slow my work down a lot, but it |
| 14 | wouldn't be impossible. |
| 15 | THE COURT: If you are given the opportunity |
| 16 | to serve on this jury and I don't allow you to be |
| 17 | excused for this reason, would you agree not to hold it |
| 18 | against the attorneys or Captain Hazelwood, and if |
| 19 | you're upset about it would you direct that towards me? |
| 20 | A I'd direct it directly to you. |
| 21 | THE COURT: Okay. At this time I'm not going |
| 22 | to excuse you for the hardship you've indicated. We'll |
| 23 | give it a try. |
| 24 | VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION OF SIDNEY R. SHERWOOD |
| 25 | BY MR. COLE: |

1 Mr. Sherwood, the dogs that you train, are Q 2 they mostly labs? 3 Α The majority are labs, but I train a good 4 percentage of Goldens and Chesepeakes and the 5 other retriever breeds. 6 Q Do you know a gentleman by the name of 7 David Rickhausen (ph)? 8 Yes, I do. Α 9 And if I told you that he was a close friend 0 10 of mine would that affect your ability to be fair 11 and impartial in this case? 12 Α I don't believe it would. 13 THE COURT: Counsel, approach the bench, 14 please. 15 (2651)16 (Whispered bench conference as follows:) 17 THE COURT: You've done this on several 18 occasions, Mr. Cole. You asked if he knows somebody 19 who... 20 MR. All the 15 questions about the Prince William Sound that --16 and what I've done in the sound and all that, I 17 didn't feel like I was on trial, and if you want 18 to do a further investigation on me, you can 19 probably find out what I've done in the sound. 20 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Sherwood, we're going to 21 do that investigation by asking you questions now, so 22 you're going to have to answer those questions today. 23 It's very important that we know something about your 24 background if you have anything in it that might make 25 it difficult for you to be fair and impartial. | 6 | Q | Were the camps that you worked at dry or wet; |

I think 2 it's carried way too far. 3 When you say it's carried way too far ... 0 4 The thing that has happened other than being Α 5 multiplied over and over several times is the 6 same thing that had happened to me. A lot of 7 times on my job, and I just done what the book 8 said and somebody cleaned up the mess and we 9 never even made the papers then. Didn't waste a 10 damn dime of the state's money. 11 Would it be fair to say that you don't feel 0 12 comfortable here in the courtroom then, given 13 what you know about what the charges are? 14 Α That's fair ... 15 Mr. Cole, whether a THE COURT: Excuse me. 16 juror feels comfortable or not is not relevant. | 5 | Q | Well, what did you use to form that opinion? |
| 6 | | What information have you retrieved to form that |
| 7 | | opinion? |
| 8 | A | I really probably can't repeat it all, due to |
| 9 | | the fact that it was in the papers constantly for |
| 10 | | days and days, but the thing that puts me in |
| 11 | | doubt that there should have been any criminal |
| 12 | | charges brought against him is he reported the |
| 13 | | oil spill, or at least somebody on the tanker |
| 14 | | crew reported the oil spill. That's what the law |
| 15 | | requires. I know that because I've been involved |
| 16 | | in oil spills. Unless the law has changed here |

| Q | |
|---|---|
| × | Well, given your do you consider the |
| | feelings you have strong feelings about this |
| | case? |
| A | Oh, yeah, it would take right now a lot of |
| | convincing to make me feel any different. |
| Q | Well, is that possible, to convince you |
| | otherwise? |
| A | I've never seen anything yet like a mind that |
| | couldn't be changed on, but I am pretty |
| | hard-headed. |
| Q | Can you try this case impartially or not? |
| A | I'm not going to be impartial to anyone if |
| | facts are facts. You know, if I can see where |
| | what I have heard and been told wasn't so, I'd |
| | have to look at it from a complete different |
| | viewpoint. |
| Q | Would you be willing to do that? |
| A | If I had no choice, I'd do it. Like I said |
| | earlier, I'm not wanting to be on this trial, but |
| | if I'm here, I'm going to do it to the best of my |

I have nothing further. 5 Your Honor, I'm going to challenge Mr. Sherwood for 6 cause. 7 THE COURT: Mr. Sherwood, you've indicated you 8 have some opinions concerning the responsibility for 9 this case, and if you've read some things on it. 10 You've been personally involved in something similar on 11 a much smaller scale. I need to know if you can 12 unequivocally set aside those opinions and base your 13 decisions, if you are called upon to make any in this 14 case, based solely on the evidence that you hear and 15 see in this court and in accordance with the Court's 16 instructions, my instructions on the law. 17 Can you assure us that you will do that? 18 I would have -- I'd have a very difficult time Α 19 If I -- I'd like to be able to tell doing that. 20 you, yes, sir, I could do it, but I'm really 21 loading myself up when I say that. 22 THE COURT: Okay. | 2 | Q | Briefly describe what your responsibilities |
| 3 | | are. |
| 4 | А | At work, well, I'm responsible for preparing |
| 5 | | for the day's patients that come in. You know, |
| 6 | | as you would go into the doctor's office, I |
| 7 | | prepare the charts when I go in in the morning, |
| 8 | | with dates and updating them and having all the |
| 9 | | lab reports ready, and then the doctor has |
| 10 | | procedures in the morning and he usually sees |
| 11 | 2 | patients in the afternoon. It's my |
| 12 | | responsibility to greet the patients, weigh them |
| 13 | | and talk with them briefly and put them into the |
| 14 | | rooms and then assist doctor in the various |
| 15 | | things that he would be doing with them as he |
| 16 | | examines them and so forth. And just the whole |
| 17 | | thing about taking care of the patients from |
| 18 | | eight to five in the evening. |
| 19 | Q | Have you read about this case? |
| 20 | А | Yeah, I have. |
| 21 | Q | Have you seen things on television and on the |
| 22 | | radio? |
| 23 | A | Yes. |
| 24 | Q | Have you formed any opinions about the |
| 25 | | responsibilities or the roles of the various |

When I say parties I mean crew members, 3 oil companies, Alyeska, the Coast Guard, 4 Department of Environmental Conservation. 5 Α I'm not very good at this, but I -- I think my 6 sympathies lie mainly with feeling sorry that it 7 all happened. I'm not at all political and so I 8 don't really think I've got sympathies, but I may 9 not be understanding you too well, but I'm just 10 sorry that it all happened, you know, and I don't 11 place blame anywhere. 12 You've lived in Alaska for 27 years. Have you Q 13 always lived in Alaska? 14 Α We -- no. I lived in Fairbanks and when I 15 came over to the United States I lived in 16 Fairbanks, and then after I was married I went to 17 live down at Clear where my husband was a 18 civilian employee with RCA and lived down in 19 And then we came back to Fairbanks, and Clear. 20 in 1969 we moved to Anchorage. 21 So how long did you live in Fairbanks? 0 22 I arrived in Fairbanks in 1962, in the summer Α 23 of '62, and we were married at the end of '62 and 24 then moved out to Clear, and we were there until 25 the end of 1965. | 11 | | They are in and out, in college and so on. |

| 14 | A | Oh, I don't have any free time, but you know, |
| 15 | | I make a little bit of time to sew and get caught |
| 16 | | up with my pictures. I do walk a little bit. I |
| 17 | | try to walk every day. I'm a bit on the |

1 Α I haven't. I haven't had an opportunity to 2 because I -- when I called in on Sunday night, 3 you know, like you do, then I found out that I 4 was to come, and then I called up and told the 5 office manager what was happening. And so I 6 haven't had an opportunity. I have spoken to the 7 other nurse, however, and she's covering for me 8 today and yesterday. 9 Q But as far as you know, he could be able to 10 get some temporary part-time help or something? 11 The both would try to manage without me. Α 12 Q That's fine. My concern is, you know, that if 13 you were on this jury you wouldn't be worried 14 about your job, your boss or doctor, you know, 15 without having somebody there, that your concerns 16 would be more directed to that rather than 17 listening to the evidence and the testimony. 18 Well, you know, he's had to cope with this Α 19 before, I'm sure. 20 0 Yes, we all agree jury service can be a 21 hardship, but we live with it. 22 (4022)23 Tape: (C-3584)24 (0003)25 Q You came to Alaska 27 years ago?

1 Α Yes. 2 0 You expressed some concern about what 3 happened, but at the same time said that from 4 what you've heard, you have not attempted to 5 assess any blame or fault on anybody. 6 Well, I -- you know, I wouldn't say I didn't Α 7 assess any blame or anything. You know, when you 8 read the -- when it happened and you heard the 9 story and, you know, all that was written about 10 how it happened and everything, I think it's only 11 normal for you to feel, oh, my God, you know, 12 what was the man thinking about. 13 When you say "man" and what you heard, you are Q 14 referring to Captain Hazelwood? 15 Yes, sir. | 2 | Q | And as a result of that did you come to any |

| 4 | | you thought he was at fault? |
| 5 | A | No, I didn't. And I think the reason why is |
| 6 | | that I'm not the sort of person that puts blame |
| 7 | | on somebody, and I would just as soon, you know, |
| 8 | | scoop it all up and put it under the mat. And as |
| 9 | | far as cleaning up the environment, I always |
| 10 | | thought, well, nature would take care of that, |
| 11 | | and I've wondered by everybody was getting to |

| 13 | | but as far as blaming blaming |
| 14 | | Captain Hazelwood for doing what the paper said |

| 25 | | conclusion you can't or won't would not assess |
| | | |

| 1 | | any fault. And is that still true today? |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | A | It is. |
| 3 | Q | In other words, you read a lot about it and |
| 4 | | you heard a lot about it, you've agonized about |
| 5 | | it but you can say, well, at this point, I am |
| 6 | | still neutral, I can still give him the |
| 7 | | presumption of innocence in spite of everything |
| 8 | | you've heard? |
| 9 | А | Yes. Because |
| 10 | Q | Now, |
| 11 | A | I wanted to say that I see how the American |
| 12 | | system works and that man or woman here in this |
| 13 | | country is innocent until he's proven guilty, and |
| 14 | | I think that's beautiful, you know. Not too many |
| 15 | | countries enjoy that type of justice. |
| 16 | Q | So you think that's very important and you |
| 17 | | would abide by that? |
| 18 | A | I would. |
| 19 | Q | At the same time, ma'am, we go to the next |
| 20 | | step, and even though you can express to us that |
| 21 | | in your mind Captain Hazelwood is presumed . |
| 22 | | innocent, the state is saying he was to blame, |
| 23 | | and they have criminal charges against him. Can |
| 24 | | you sit here now and listen to the evidence and |
| 25 | | still find a reach a conclusion one way or the |
| | | |

| г | |
|----|--|
| 1 | other in your frame of mind? |
| 2 | A But I thought that the judge told us that we |
| 3 | were to assume that Captain Hazelwood was |
| 4 | innocent until he was proven guilty. |
| 5 | Q I didn't make myself very clear, and I |
| 6 | apologize. The state has charged him, he goes |
| 7 | with that presumption which carries throughout |
| 8 | the trial, he's always presumed innocent unless |
| 9 | and until overcome by evidence to the contrary |
| 10 | that would convince the jury unanimously that he |
| 11 | was guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. |
| 12 | So, the question is, can you do that, |
| 13 | considering your present frame of mind? If the |
| 14 | evidence in the trial supports that instruction |
| 15 | the Judge will give you and you find that beyond |
| 16 | a reasonable doubt, yes, he did these things, |
| 17 | then could you reach a verdict of guilty? |
| 18 | (Pause) |
| 19 | THE COURT: Do you understand the question? |
| 20 | A I think I think it's getting all muddy. |
| 21 | THE COURT: I think it is too. Mr. Madson, |
| 22 | MR. MADSON: Well, it's afternoon and we do |
| 23 | tend to get a little muddy, too. |
| 24 | THE COURT:let's clear up the water a |
| 25 | little bit. |

1 MR. MADSON: What's that? 2 THE COURT: Let's clear up the water a little 3 bit, this is all muddy. 4 (Ms. Brust by Mr. Madson) Let's start with 0 5 this. You've indicated you've come in here with 6 a clean slate. I mean, Captain Hazelwood does. 7 He's not guilty in your mind, he's presumed 8 innocent. Do you agree with that? 9 Α Well, I thought that I was to assume that the 10 man was innocent. 11 Q Right. 12 Α I was told that by His Honor here, and 13 according to the American justice system, that's 14 how he is to be treated. He is innocent at the 15 moment. 16 That's right. Okay, we've got that straight. Q 17 Α Yeah. 18 He's innocent as he sits here right now. 0 19 Α Right. 20 But you've never sat through an entire trial 0 21 before, right? So maybe this is where it gets a 22 little bit confusing. The trial then will have 23 people come in here that the state says will sit 24 at the witness stand and they will testify and 25 they will try to convince you that their

| 1 | | testimony will show you beyond a reasonable doubt |
|----|-------|---|
| 2 | | that he is guilty of these charges. |
| 3 | | Do you follow me so far? |
| 4 | A | So far I'm with you. |
| 5 | Q | The Judge will also instruct you and says you |
| 6 | | can find him guilty or not guilty, based on the |
| 7 | | evidence you've heard, and if you find him |
| 8 | | guilty, the proof must be beyond this reasonable |
| 9 | , | doubt. And my question to you is do you feel, in |
| 10 | | your frame of mind, that you could, in fact, find |
| 11 | | him guilty after you've heard all the evidence |
| 12 | | from witnesses in the case if it convinces you in |
| 13 | | accordance with what the Judge tells you, the |
| 14 | | law? |
| 15 | A | I'm not sure that I'm understanding you, but I |
| 16 | | would have to wait until the evidence was |
| 17 | Q | Right. |
| 18 | A | was presented to me. |
| 19 | Q | I'm not saying what you should do right now. |
| 20 | A | And then I hope that I would be able to make |
| 21 | | that decision. |
| 22 | Q | My question |
| 23 | | THE COURT: Mr. Madson, excuse me. You have |
| 24 | to go | on. I think that |
| 25 | | MR. MADSON: I think one more question is |

1 going to do this, Your Honor. 2 Really, ma'am, in other words, your mind is 0 3 made up but you're not sitting here telling us 4 now that under no circumstances could you not 5 find him quilty or not quilty? 6 Oh, I wouldn't say that at all, no. Α 7 0 It all depends... 8 It would depend, wouldn't it, yes. I'm sorry Α 9 I'm... 10 No, I'm sorry I didn't make myself clear 0 11 The other question I wanted to touch on, enough. 12 somewhat briefly is, you indicated that you 13 consider yourself a spiritual person and belong 14 to a prayer movement, something of this nature, 15 and I don't mean to pry and I certainly don't 16 mean to infringe on your personal feelings, but 17 do you feel that in any respect your strong 18 religious beliefs could interfere in the 19 slightest in your ability to serve as a juror? 20 I think it would help me considerably. Α 21 How would that be? 0 22 Because I believe in fairness and in love and Α 23 in forgiveness and in justice. 24 And you feel that this could somehow make you 0 25 a better juror?

| 14 | A Yes. My name is James Edward Rousey, Senior. |
| 15 | I am a member of the United States Post Office. |
| 16 | I am a letter carrier. I see no reasons why I |
| 17 | should not serve on the jury and I know none of |
| 18 | the mentioned. |
| 19 | THE COURT: Did you go over that witness list |
| 20 | and verify that? |
| 21 | A I did. |
| 22 | THE COURT: Thank you, sir. Mr. Cole. |
| 23 | MR. COLE: Thank you, Your Honor. |

| ſ | | |
|----|---|---|
| 1 | Q | Good afternoon, Mr is it Rossy (ph)? |
| 2 | A | Rousey. |
| 3 | Q | Rousey, excuse me. |
| 4 | A | That's all right. |
| 5 | Q | I noticed from your questionnaire that you are |
| 6 | | a member of the Prospectors Club? |
| 7 | A | Yes, I wasn't quite sure whether that was one |
| 8 | | of the ecological membership clubs or not. It's |
| 9 | | a group of senior citizens and so forth that go |
| 10 | 1 | on trips, hiking, fishing trips and so forth. |
| 11 | Q | How long have you been a member of that club? |
| 12 | A | Approximately three years. |
| 13 | Q | And is it mostly outdoor activities that you |
| 14 | | become involved in? |
| 15 | A | Not necessarily. Well, basically, yes. I |
| 16 | | would have to say yes to that because it is. I |
| 17 | | like to hike. |
| 18 | Q | And do you hike around is it always around |
| 19 | | the Anchorage area or do you go elsewhere? |
| 20 | А | Don't go too far. It's been been in this |
| 21 | | general area, yes. |
| 22 | Q | Where did you live before you came to Alaska? |
| 23 | A | My home is Bullneck (ph), Illinois. I lived |
| 24 | | there approximately four years before I came to |
| 25 | | Alaska. |

| 1 | Q | And you came up here as a transfer with the |
|----|---|--|
| 3 | A | Yes, I did. |
| 4 | Q | How long have you worked for the post office |
| 5 | | in total? |
| 6 | A | I just started my eighth year. |
| 7 | Q | It looks like you put in about 16 years in the |
| 8 | | military? |
| 9 | A | Twenty-six, sir. |
| 10 | Q | Twenty-six, I'm sorry. Wow! What rank did |
| 11 | | you attain in the military? |
| 12 | A | I retained a master sergeant, E-8. |
| 13 | Q | And were you involved in any particular area? |
| 14 | A | I was in a number of areas, but generally my |
| 15 | | the mainstay of my career was in |
| 16 | | administration. |
| 17 | Q | Were you involved in writing evaluations? |
| 18 | A | Yes, a number. |
| 19 | Q | Of people's works and |
| 20 | A | Yes, as a supervisor, we're all responsible |
| 21 | | for that. |
| 22 | Q | So you were a supervisor during that period? |
| 23 | A | Yes. Not the whole period, just the senior |
| 24 | | NCO positions. |
| 25 | Q | You listed that you have heard about this case |

| 1 | | on the radio and in the newspapers and |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | television. Is that correct? |
| 3 | A | Yes, that is. |
| 4 | Q | Have you formed any opinions about the |
| 5 | , | respective roles of the parties with regards to |
| 6 | | the cause of the Exxon Valdez going aground. |
| 7 | | When I say parties, I mean it broadly; the crew |
| 8 | | members, the Department of Environmental |
| 9 | | Conservation, the Coast Guard, Alyeska, Exxon. |
| 10 | A | Not really, because to be able to do that I |
| 11 | | would have to know what really took place. |
| 12 | Q | Do you feel comfortable in the fact that you |
| 13 | | will be asked in this case to set aside anything |
| 14 | | that you've heard outside the courtroom? And if |
| 15 | - | asked to deliberate; you'll be asked to base your |
| 16 | | decision on the witness' testimony and the |
| 17 | | evidence that's admitted and your own common |
| 18 | | sense and good judgment. |
| 19 | A | Yes, I think I'm sure I can do that. |
| 20 | Q | Does that seem like a fair system to you? |
| 21 | A | It is, because, for simply, an individual is |
| 22 | | innocent until proven guilty. |
| 23 | Q | I noticed that you indicated that you don't |
| 24 | | drink. Is that for medical reasons or personal |
| 25 | | reasons? |
| | | |

| 1 | A | That's basically personal reasons. I had a |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | brother that was an alcoholic and I learned from |
| 3 | | his mistakes. |
| 4 | Q | Your job now, are you permitted at all to |
| 5 | | drink while you're on duty? |
| 6 | A | Not alcoholic beverages, no. |
| 7 | Q | And have you ever had alcohol at lunch? |
| 8 | A | No. Well, I cannot say never, but none that I |
| 9 | | can remember. |
| 10 | Q | Can you tell me what you do is there |
| 11 | | anything else that you do in your free time, like |
| 12 | | read or watch television or go to movies? |
| 13 | A | Well, I do go to movies. My son likes to go |
| 14 | | to a movie every once in a while. I watch |
| 15 | | television, I go cross country skiing, a little |
| 16 | | bit of downhill skiing, take walks. |
| 17 | Q | Are there any particular television programs |
| 18 | | that you watch? |
| 19 | A | I love to watch game shows. |
| 20 | Q | You've never served on a jury. Is that |
| 21 | | correct? |
| 22 | A | I never have, no. |
| 23 | Q | And you go to movies. Can you tell me the |
| 24 | | last good movie you've been to? |
| 25 | A | There aren't many good movies anymore that I |
| | L | |

| 1 | | can really classify as good. I go to them |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | basically because my son likes to and I like |
| 3 | | companionship with him. |
| 4 | Q | When you were raising your kids did you ever |
| 5 | | come home and find a situation where you had one |
| 6 | | of two several of your kids were arguing or |
| 7 | | something had happened and you had to come back |
| 8 | | and reconstruct what had gone on while you were |
| 9 | | away? Like something was broken or there had |
| 10 | | been a fight while you were away, things like |
| 11 | | that. |
| 12 | A | Not that I can really recall. |
| 13 | Q | Okay. When you were supervising people in the |
| 14 | | military did you ever come across the situation |
| 15 | | where you had to judge the credibility of a |
| 16 | | couple people that were telling you different |
| 17 | | stories about the same incident? |
| 18 | A | Yes, I have. On numerous occasions. |
| 19 | Q | And would it be fair to say that you, in |
| 20 | | evaluating and coming to a determination of which |
| 21 | | story was more credible, you evaluated the story |
| 22 | | and watched the mannerisms of the people that |
| 23 | | were telling you that and relied on your own |
| 24 | | common sense and good judgment? |
| 25 | A | Yes. A little bit of history of my military |
| | | |

| 1 | | is that I was in the Inspector General's Office, |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | | and as a senior NCO I evaluated a lot of soldier |
| 3 | | complaints. And I officiated for both sides of |
| 4 | | the comment that they had; the soldier is wrong, |
| 5 | | the soldier is wrong and I showed him where he is |
| 6 | | wrong. If the NCO was wrong, I did likewise. |
| 7 | Q | Would you be willing to use those same skills |
| 8 | | that you used while you were in the military, |
| 9 | | sitting in a jury and evaluating the witnesses |
| 10 | | that are presented before you? |
| 11 | А | Yes, I would. |
| 12 | Q | Have you ever had a close friend or relative |
| 13 | | that was charged with a crime or |
| 14 | А | Well, I'm sure I've had brothers that have |
| 15 | | been in trouble with the authorities. Nothing |
| 16 | | exciting. |
| 17 | Q | Anything that would affect your ability to be |
| 18 | | fair and impartial here today? |
| 19 | A | No. |
| 20 | Q | Have you ever looked through a radar screen? |
| 21 | A | I have looked in one, but I'd never know how |
| 22 | | to read it. |
| 23 | Q | You understand, of course, the importance of |
| 24 | | this case, both to Captain Hazelwood and the |
| 25 | 1 | state of Alaska? |

| A I do. |
|---|
| Q If you are chosen as a juror, would you be |
| willing to give both sides a fair trial in this |
| case? |
| A Most definitely. |
| Q And would you be willing to reach a fair and |
| just verdict based upon the evidence that you |
| hear, presented by the witnesses, the evidence |
| that's admitted and your own common sense and |
| good judgment? |
| A I would. |
| Q Does that seem like a fair system to you? |
| A Very fair. |
| MR. COLE: Your Honor, I have no further |
| questions and would pass for cause. Thank you. |
| VOIR DIRE EXAMINATION OF JAMES EDWARD ROUSEY, SR. |
| BY MR. CHALOS: |
| Q Good afternoon, Mr. Rousey. |
| A Good afternoon. |
| Q I'd like to get into the area of what you |
| heard and saw in respect to the spill, from the |
| moment it occurred, up to today. What newspapers |
| do you read normally? |
| A We take the Times, Anchorage Times. |
| Q Do you read the Daily News? |

1 Periodically, not too often. Α 2 Do you read any magazines? 0 3 Α Very few. 4 Have you followed the spill and the events Q 5 surrounding the spill on television? 6 Α Only when it should cross the screen while I'm 7 at it, doing it. If it wasn't interesting to me, 8 I'd turn it off and look at something else. 9 With respect to the information gotten from Q 10 the newspapers in respect to the spill, had that 11 come from the Anchorage Times? 12 Α No, it came from all three medias, the radio, 13 the television and the Anchorage Times. 14 0 What stations do you listen to on the radio? 15 Α Basically I listen to KASH, 105. 16 Q Have you formed any opinions with respect to 17 fault or respective -- let me start again. Have 18 you formed any opinions with respect to the spill 19 on the basis of what you read and heard? 20 I formed a -- somewhat of an opinion, but not Α 21 an opinion that I can hold with because it hasn't 22 been proven to me. 23 0 All right. And then we hear the opinion that 24 you have on the basis of what you read and heard. 25 Well, the only -- only thing I can say is that Α

1 what I read and heard is the ship went aground, 2 an attempt was made to bring it off the reef and 3 that the oil spilled. I don't know if the cause 4 of the ship coming off the reef or trying to be 5 taken off the reef caused the oil to spill or 6 what. 7 Have you formed any opinions as to Q 8 Captain Hazelwood's role with respect to the 9 spill? 10 Α No, not really. 11 0 Have you read accounts with respect to the 12 possibility that Captain Hazelwood was drinking 13 prior to the spill? 14 I haven't read, but I have heard on TV,... Α 15 Have you formed... 0 16 ... the possibility. Α 17 I'm sorry. Q 18 ... the possibility that he was drinking. Α 19 Have you formed any opinions with respect to Q 20 that? 21 Α The only thing I had really heard was that he 22 was off-duty at the time and had been drinking, 23 that they believe that he had been drinking, and 24 based on that, if he's off-duty and that there, 25 then what a man does -- of course being the

| 1 | | leader of the ship and that there, he has more |
| 2 | | hats to wear than just the one. But I believe he |
| 3 | | has the right to do certain things while |
| 4 | | off-duty. |
| 5 | Q | You mentioned that you don't drink for |
| 6 | | personal reasons, the fact that you have a |
| 7 | | brother who was an alcoholic? |
| 8 | A | Yes. Well, from the time I was a child he was |
| 9 | | an alcoholic and I seen how it affected him, and |
| 10 | | I had drank a couple times and I seen how it |
| 11 | | started affecting me. So I said this is not for |
| 12 | | me, and I did not I cut it off there. |
| 13 | Q | Do you disapprove of people drinking? |
| 14 | A | No, I do not. |
| 15 | Q | Do you have any strong feelings with respect |
| 16 | | to alcoholism? |
| 17 | A | I have a strong feeling that it is a disease |
| 18 | | that needs to be cured. Other than that, it's |
| 19 | | like other diseases. |
| 20 | Q | Do you harbor any animosity to someone who |
| 21 | | might be afflicted with alcoholism? . |
| 22 | A | No, not personally. |
| 23 | Q | Do you do any fishing at all in Prince William |
| 24 | | Sound? |
| 25 | А | Not in the Sound. Normally in the streams. |
| | | |

| 1 | Q | Have you ever been to Prince William Sound? |
|-----|---|---|
| 2 | A | I have been across from Valdez to Seward and |
| 3 | | to Homer on the ferry. |
| 4 | Q | Have you expressed any opinion with respect to |
| 5 | | the spill to anyone? |
| 6 | A | Oh, I probably have to my wife. My wife and I |
| 7 | | have probably talked about it. |
| 8 | Q | And I take it your wife has expressed her |
| 9 | | opinion to you? |
| 10 | A | Well, yes. It would be mutual in the family. |
| 11 | Q | Well, what type of opinion have you expressed |
| 12. | | to your wife? |
| 13 | A | Well, that the it happened, there was a lot |
| 14 | | of damage and it could have happened through |
| 15 | | natural causes, it could have happened through |
| 16 | | neglect. |
| 17 | Q | Have you expressed an opinion that this spill |
| 18 | | might have been an accident? |
| 19 | A | I cannot honestly say that I have actually |
| 20 | | said expressed that, no. |
| 21 | Q | Do you or any of your relatives or close |
| 22 | | friends own any interests in commercial fishing |
| 23 | | licenses? |
| 24 | A | No, we do not. |
| 25 | Q | I take it that you are not a plaintiff in any |
| | | |

| 1 | | civil lawsuit arising out of the spill? |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | A | No, I'm not. |
| 3 | Q | Do you know anybody that's a plaintiff in the |
| 4 | | civil lawsuits arising out of the spill? |
| 5 | A | None that have mentioned anything to me about |
| 6 | | it. |
| 7 | Q | Do you have any friends or relatives in the |
| 8 | | Coast Guard? |
| 9 | A | No, I do not. |
| 10 | Q | Do you believe that a police officer or state |
| 11 | | investigator could make a mistake in his job like |
| 12 | | any other person? |
| 13 | A | I do feel this is a human trait. |
| 14 | Q | Would you tend to give more weight or |
| 15 | | importance to the testimony of let's say a Coast |
| 16 | | Guard personnel or police officer merely because |
| 17 | | they are law enforcement people? |
| 18 | A | Not necessarily. It would have to if they |
| 19 | | were technically advised in that area that they |
| 20 | | were advising them, yes. But if not, not |
| 21 | | necessarily. |
| 22 | Q | Let me just ask you a few more questions with |
| 23 | | respect to your stint in the Inspector General's |
| 24 | | Office. |
| | İ | |

| 1 | Q | Did you act as a judge in those |
|----|---|---|
| 2 | A | No. |
| 3 | Q | instances? Mediator? |
| 4 | A | Well, basically a mediator. What I did, I |
| 5 | | heard the complaint, I evaluated the complaint, I |
| 6 | | got both sides together and mediated, as you |
| 7 | | would say. I made recommendations to the |
| 8 | | Inspector General. |
| 9 | Q | I see. These are disputes between the |
| 10 | | commissioned officers and non-commissioned |
| 11 | | officer? |
| 12 | A | No. These are normally well, it could be. |
| 13 | | But it's normally from the lowest individual to |
| 14 | | the highest and their dependents. |
| 15 | Q | In those instances were you in the position to |
| 16 | | hear testimony from people or their side of the |
| 17 | | story, if you will? |
| 18 | A | Well, yes, in most of those instances |
| 19 | Q | Did they submit evidence to you, written |
| 20 | | evidence or other types of evidence? |
| 21 | А | They wrote down a complaint, I'll read the |
| 22 | | complaint and I'll look into the complaint. |
| 23 | Q | How many such disputes did you mediate, would |
| 24 | | you say? |
| 25 | A | Well, I'd say in the hundreds, over the eight |

And I 11 would make the recommendations and then my 12 superior officers would make the ruling. 13 0 Do you consider yourself a fair person? 14 T do. Α 15 When you were in the Army did any of your 0 16 evaluations indicate that you were a fair person 17 who listened to -- at least in the Inspector 18 General's role or job that you had, that you 19 listened to the evidence and rendered fair 20 decisions or fair analyses of what was presented? 21 On a number of occasions the individuals Α Yes. 22 I had disagreed with actually complimented me on 23 the way I handled their part of the case. The 24 Inspector General himself has complimented me on 25 the way I handled the situations. I think I did

The one brother that was Α 8 an alcoholic, yes, he had some traffic problems, 9 violations and that. That had to do with the 10 drunkenness. 11 I don't mean to pry, but I have to ask these Q 12 questions. 13 Α I understand. 14 What was the nature of the trouble that your 0 15 other brothers got into? 16 Oh, I think a couple of them broke windows. Α 17 One of them, I think, was for vandalism. And 18 that's basically it. 19 All right. Did you feel that your brothers 0 20 were treated fairly by the authorities? 21 Yes, I think so. Α 22 MR. Α 5 THE COURT: Okay, that's where you filled out 6 the questionnaire? 7 Α Right. 8 THE COURT: Okay. Can you be back there 9 Friday at 8:30? 10 Α Yes, I can. 11 THE COURT: Okay. It's important that you be 12 there at 8:30, and I'll see you then. 13 Α Fine. 14 THE COURT: Thank you. 15 Α Thank you. 16 THE COURT: And we'll get to the next juror. 17 We'll wind up the day with this juror. 18 (Pause) 19 Mr. Fults? 20 Α Yes, sir. 21 THE COURT: Come on in and have a seat in the 22 front row. You'll see a microphone on the ledge there. 23 Take it off the clip and have a seat. You are the last 24 one for the day, so if you'd answer those first four 25 questions, we'll get a start on it.

| 1 | A Okay. My name is Monty Fults. Organizations? |
| 2 | THE COURT: Elks Club, a travel organization, |
| 3 | social organizations, |
| 4 | A None. |
| 5 | THE COURT:NRA, things of that nature. |
| 6 | A Oh, NRA. |
| 7 | THE COURT: Anything else like that, the |
| 8 | Sierra Club, things of that nature? |
| 9 | A No. No, sir. The only reason I have that, I |
| 10 | that I shouldn't serve on the jury is I've had |
| 11 | real bad financial problems. I don't get pay or |
| 12 | whatsoever and I'm afraid if this lasted very |
| 13 | long, I'd be in pretty bad shape. |
| 14 | THE COURT: You are working for |
| 15 | Lester Phillips Incorporated? |
| 16 | A On Elmendorf. It's a private contractor out |
| 17 | of South Carolina. |
| 18 | THE COURT: Are you presently working for them |
| 19 | at this time? |
| 20 | A Yes, sir. We've got a five-year contract out |
| 21 | there. |
| 22 | THE COURT: How long have you been working for |
| 23 | them? |
| 24 | A Three years and three years and three |

| 2 | contract? |
| 3 | A No, sir. |
| 4 | THE COURT: Have you ever served on a jury |
| 5 | since you've worked for them? |
| 6 | A No. |
| 7 | THE COURT: Have you determined from your |
| 8 | supervisor whether you would or would not get |
| 9 | compensation while you are on jury duty? |
| 10 | A I asked. The first time I believe this is |
| 11 | the third time I come down for jury duty, and the |
| 12 | first time that I was supposed to come down, I |
| 13 | asked them and he said that the company wouldn't |
| 14 | make up any pay at all for it. So |
| 15 | THE COURT: What are your days at work, Monday |
| 16 | through Friday or |
| 17 | Q Saturday. I work six days a week. |
| 18 | THE COURT: Okay. What are your hours? |
| 19 | A I average probably 35 hours a week. We start |
| 20 | at 7:00 in the morning and get off anytime from |
| 21 | 12:00 to 2:00. |
| 22 | THE COURT: Are you buying a home? |
| 23 | A No, sir, we're renting. |
| 24 | THE COURT: Maybe you can describe the |
| 25 | financial hardship you would suffer if you were to |

1 serve on the jury. First of all, would you lose your 2 job -- is there any chance you'd lose your job? 3 Well, I -- I don't guite understand why, but Α 4 he had mentioned that if I was gone for anywhere, 5 four to five weeks, that he'd have to replace me. 6 THE COURT: So,... 7 Α Well, it's just a small operation, and there's 8 only six of us there. And he's got three trucks, 9 three crews, and without a driver, he's only got 10 two crews running. So we have to have a spare 11 truck in case one breaks down. 12 THE COURT: How about if we could get you on a 13 shorter jury, say a one to five-day jury, would you be 14 able to do that then? 15 Well, it would be possible, I quess. Α I've 16 already been two days. I lose about $100.00 a 17 day, you know, if I don't work. 18 THE COURT: I understand that. But everybody 19 has some degree of inconvenience, some greater than 20 others. 21 Α I understand that. 22 THE COURT: I'm going to let you go because of 23 the hardship you've related to. I am going to have you 24 called back and see if we can get you on a short-term 25 I'd like to see you get an opportunity to serve jury.

1 on a jury. And you can tell the next judge your 2 financial hardship. I think you'd suffer a financial 3 hardship in an extended jury trial. It just might be. 4 But it doesn't sound like you'd suffer too badly for a 5 short-term trial. 6 All right. Α 7 THE COURT: I'll excuse you for this one. 8 Take your jury card from the clerk, take it downstairs 9 to the jury service clerk and give her the information. 10 And bring all the jurors in. 11 Thank you. Α 12 THE COURT: You're welcome. 13 (Pause) 14 (All jury panel present) 15 Thank you, ladies and gentlemen. THE COURT: 16 That concludes the day's selection process. I'll need 17 all of you back tomorrow in the jury assembly room. We 18 are not going as quickly as I expected, but for good 19 reason. We'll need all of you to come back tomorrow at 20 8:30 to the jury selection room. 21 The second group of 30 people, I have notified 22 40 to 60 that they need not come in tomorrow, but 23 they'll come in on Thursday. But for those of you who 24 were waiting next door, I'll need you in tomorrow. 25 We'll get to you tomorrow, I'm pretty sure.

You might bring a book or something like that to keep you occupied next door. I apologize for keeping you cooped up in there. We'll take a lunch tomorrow like we did today, and if you need to take breaks, you can use the restroom.

6 I was advised by one of the jurors, 7 prospective jurors, that somebody approached her in the 8 hallway with a leaflet, and I have no idea what was in 9 that leaflet because I understand that she rebuffed 10 that person and didn't read it herself. I have no idea 11 what it was, but I appreciate you telling Kelly, the 12 Clerk, and also the two security officials about that. 13 I understand you didn't read it. When your turn comes 14 up to answer some questions, we'll inquire further on 15 that.

16 In the meantime, continue that same thing. If 17 somebody approaches you to discuss this case with you 18 or tries to hand you something about anything 19 concerning this case, reject it and report it to the 20 security official, Kelly or myself. In the meantime, 21 don't discuss this matter. Avoid the media attention 22 given to it. If you're exposed to it, just disregard 23 it.

We'll call you back in tomorrow for further jury selection process. But report to the jury assembly room tomorrow morning at 8:30. That's where you met today and where you met yesterday to fill out the questionnaire. Mr. Purden will come down and bring you up as a body together with the first 10 of that second group we called out.

I'll see you tomorrow, and be safe.

Are there any other prospective jurors in the courtroom? All right. Nobody has raised their hand.

It looks to me like we're not going to get through with the next 30, so I've given the clerk to try to notify them by telephone not to come in. If they do come in tomorrow, they'll be excused and required to come in on Thursday, unless they hear differently from us. It looks to me like we're not going to get to the third group on Thursday, and I might have to do the same thing tomorrow, but things may speed up. And I want to make sure we have jurors available.

Counsel can be in court tomorrow at 8:30. In the event you have anything you need to take up, then we'll have time to do it. We'll get started on the jury selection at 9:00.

I have no idea what that matter was. The juror who reported to our security official was Peggy Steward. She's number 17, and when she comes up,

| 17 | THE COURT: Well, I don't want to tell you |
| 18 | it seems like at 4:30 we don't have matters to take up, |
| 19 | but all of a sudden at 8:30 we discover some matters, |
| 20 | and I've found that if we want to move it along, we |
| 21 | better be here somewhere around 8:30. |
| 22 | Thursday is another matter. Thursday morning |
| 23 | we're going to start at 8:00 and we're going to take up |
